

PTC Document and Referencing Style Guide (2017, version 1.4): Corrections and additions

Holger Szesnat, 13 March 2017

New paragraphs to be added at the bottom of page 18

Some books were written by one person, but compiled / edited by another (for example, because the author has died). This is usually indicated on the title page and/or the copyright page. In this case, the author is usually listed first, in the usual place, and the phrase "Edited by..." is added after the book title/subtitle. For example:

Brueggemann, Walter. 2006. The Word That Redescribes the World: The Bible and Discipleship. Edited by Patrick D. Miller. Minneapolis: Fortress Press.

Luhmann, Niklas. 2013. Introduction to Systems Theory. Edited by Dirk Baecker. Translated by Peter Gilgen. Cambridge: Polity.

Some books have unusual origins, and therefore present a challenge to any referencing system, including the modified Chicago-B system on which PTC's referencing style is based. In such a case, the system has to be adapted. For example, the English edition and translation of "Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Works" (a multi-volume project published by Fortress Press) typically lists the following on the title page: (a) the editors of the (original) German edition, (b) the editors of the English edition, and (c) the translators. For the volume containing Bonhoeffer's famous book 'Discipleship', this could be represented as follows:

Bonhoeffer, Dietrich. 2005. Discipleship. Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works 4. Translated by Barbara Green and Reinhard Krauss. German edition edited by Martin Kuske and Ilse Tödt. English edition edited by Geoffrey B. Kelly and John D. Godsey. Minneapolis: Fortress.

Note that the book series and volume information ("Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works 4.") in the example above may be omitted, as long as this is done consistently throughout the bibliography.

Corrections

On page 39, there are three small but confusing errors (highlighted by means of a red circle on the next page of this 'Corrections and additions' document).

1. and 2. Under 'Chapters in edited books', the entry for Zuckert (2002) contains two mistakes: there should not be a comma after the full stop which follows the first name or middle initial, and there should not be a colon after the word 'In'. Instead, the bibliographic entry for this item should look like this:

Zuckert, Catherine H. 2002. "Hermeneutics in Practice: Gadamer on Ancient Philosophy." In The Cambridge Companion to Gadamer, edited by Robert J. Dostal, 201-224. Cambridge: Cambridge University Press.

3. Under 'Journal articles', the entry for Gunton (1990) contains one error: there should not be a space between the colon and the page range. Instead, the bibliographic entry for this item should look like this:

Gunton, Colin E. 1990. "Using and Being Used: Scripture and Systematic Theology." Theology Today 47 (3):248-259.
