WELCOME

Greetings and welcome to the Pacific Theological College. This inter-denominational, multi-ethnic and multicultural institution is the only ecumenical training institution in the Pacific that offers theological education up to Ph.D. level. It is located in Suva, the capital of Fiji.

The hallmark of PTC is its three-pronged emphasis on ecumenism, contextual theology and missiological focus. These emphases play a prominent role in defining not only the nature of the academic programme, but also its content. The 'pacificness' of such strands is explored in all theological disciplines and is an integral part of the College's liturgical life and extracurricular activities. The unique context of PTC complements the formational training most students received in their local theological schools prior to taking up studies here. In essence, PTC offers the opportunity for all students to receive ecumenical formation as part of their ministerial training.

The studies of traditional theological disciplines such as Theology, Ethics, Biblical Studies, Church History and Ministry continue to be pursued at PTC at a higher level. These form the core of the academic programme. Complementing the academic programme are courses offered by the Institutes through the involvement of their Directors. All contribute to preparing students for a life of Christian leadership and service. At PTC a deliberate effort is made to train the future leaders of the churches as pastor-scholars. The goal is to equip ministers to respond pastorally and think critically; to attain the necessary academic standards needed in a teaching ministry; and to awaken their social consciousness to enable them to exercise leadership in social justice ministries.

Consistent with this is its commitment to the ecumenical movement with its vision of the church's mission, the global and multi-cultural character of Christian ministry in the modern world and the ultimate unity of the Body of Christ.

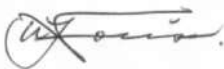

The College offers a rare opportunity to pursue theological studies in a vibrant ecumenical community. Its various academic and professional programmes are delivered by a faculty of renowned scholars from around the globe. Their efforts are complemented by one of the finest theological libraries in the South Pacific.

In its educational work, PTC strives to provide a context in which students and teachers may explore and nurture their vocational commitments while becoming biblically, theologically, historically and pastorally informed and competent in the diverse skills necessary for ministry. PTC offers an integrated curriculum in which the historical and contemporary resources of the Church's thought and practice are in constant, mutual interaction with the contributions of our diverse cultures. Equally important, PTC offers a life of worship, spiritual development and mutual Christian care which leads us to respond to God in Jesus Christ.

The ecumenical spirit is fuelled by the presence of students and staff representing different denominations in the Church. Their historical church roots and experience, expressed in a variety of cultural norms and perceptions, all combine to make PTC a vibrant and exciting place. The challenge posed by 'diversity in unity' is in essence a theological process of reconfiguration in terms of meaning and application. If you are open and passionate about the challenge of ecumenical formation, then I invite you to familiarise yourself with our programmes. If in the end you decide to come and study at PTC, be assured of the welcoming nature and exciting possibilities that await you on your arrival.

God's blessings and peace surround you always.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

MISSION STATEMENT

The Pacific Theological College is an ecumenical tertiary theological institution that serves the churches of the Pacific region.

PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES

- To be a means of making evident and strengthening our obedience towards the visions of ecumenism and oneness in Christ.
- To share with the world the 'Pacifcness' and distinctive insights which God has given to Pacific Christians.
- To make available to the world the College's missiological focus as reflected in its curriculum and programmes.
- To assist in providing for the Pacific churches a highly trained indigenous ministry and leadership.
- To provide biblical, theological, and ecumenical training to the various contexts of the Pacific, its cultures and current situations.
- To enrich the community by the presence of faculty and students from various backgrounds sharing the gifts which God has given to each; thus enabling the churches of the Pacific to be led to a deeper gratitude for the richness of God's grace and to a readier obedience to God's will.
- To provide advanced theological study, research and the pursuit of academic excellence in Pacific contexts in order to serve the needs of the Pacific Churches in their co-operative ministry and mission.
- To provide and work towards professionalism in practical ministries, especially in training for mission, Christian education, pastoral care and counselling, worship and liturgy, spirituality, homiletics and evangelism.

DOCTRINAL BASIS

The doctrinal basis on which the churches co-operate in this College is the faith of the Church catholic as it is expressed in the Bible and the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds. We believe that the Holy Spirit continues to interpret this faith in the life and witness of the participating Churches.

ACCREDITATION

The Pacific Theological College is recognized by the Fiji Higher Education Commission. In addition, the Master of Theology and Bachelor of Divinity degrees at PTC are accredited by the South Pacific Association of Theological Schools.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF PTC

IN THE BEGINNING

Striking social, economic and political changes in the Pacific region in the fifteen years following World War II stimulated the various island churches and missions to confer regarding questions facing the church about its own life and about its responsibility to the communities in which each denomination and mission found itself.

With the help of the International Missionary Council, conferences with Pacific-wide participation were held in April and May of 1961. These recognised the need for a central institution which would provide theological education at a higher level than was available within the Pacific at that time, an education which in a number of ways would better prepare leaders for the churches in the new Pacific that was coming into being.

The Dudley House consultation, which was specifically on theological education, made plans to enlist the cooperation of all church bodies involved in theological training in the Pacific for a central educational institution, and in September 1962 a negotiating committee met in Suva and drew up specific, detailed proposals for the founding and operation of such a college. PTC thus became the first educational institution, secular or religious, within the region to offer studies at degree level and award an internationally accepted degree.

FOUNDING CHURCHES

The participating churches which gave initial formal agreement to and support for the founding of the Pacific Theological College (PTC) came from four denominational traditions: Anglican, Congregational, Methodist, and Presbyterian/Reformed (Église Évangélique). During the preliminary stages and at various times subsequently, Lutherans and churches representing unions among various traditions have also supported the College. These several traditions are represented on the governing body of the College, the College Council. The following Churches are the owners of the Pacific Theological College:

The Anglican Diocese of Polynesia, The Anglican Church of Melanesia, The Congregational Christian Church in Samoa, The Congregational Christian Church in American Samoa, The Cook Islands Christian Church, The Ekalesia Kelisiano Tuvalu, The Ekalesia Niue, The Kiribati Uniting Church, The Nauru Congregational Church, The Evangelical Lutheran Church of Papua New Guinea, The Free Wesleyan Church of Tonga, The Methodist Church in Fiji and Rotuma, Samoa Methodist Church, The Presbyterian Church of Vanuatu, The Etaretia Porotetani Maohi, L'Eglise Evangelique en Nouvelle Calédonie et aux Iles Loyautés, The United Church in Papua New Guinea, The United Church in the Solomon Islands, The United Church of Christ in the Marshall Islands and The United Church of Christ in Pohnpei.

THE COUNCIL OF PTC

The Council of PTC has overall authority to determine the policies and finances of the school, and through its Executive (which is appointed by the Council) assists the Principal and staff to implement its decisions and to see to the ongoing programme of the College.

The Principal of the College, subject to Council directives and constitutional provisions, has final control of all the internal affairs of the PTC and responsibility for its common life and the academic and religious welfare of all students. The Principal works very closely with his colleagues in the Faculty in carrying out these responsibilities, and the teaching staff share in the administration when asked. At present, six full-time lecturers deliver the academic programme, together with contributions from the Principal, the Director of the Institute for Research and Social Analysis, the Director of the Education by Extension Programme and a few outside assistants.

These together with the Registrar, Director of God's Pacific People Programme, Director of Finance & Administration, qualified faculty spouses tutoring in the Women's Fellowship Development Programme, office staff, support staff and Etina Havea staff comprise the thirty plus staff of the College. The teaching staff is assisted in maintaining standards of teaching and examination by a Board of Graduate Studies which includes international scholars.

By the authority of the Council, PTC currently awards the following degrees, certificates and diplomas to those who have completed the set requirements:

- Certificate in Women's Ministry Studies
- Certificate in Women's Ministry Studies & Theology
- Certificate in Theological Studies [only via PTCEE]
- Diploma in Theological Studies [only via PTCEE]
- Undergraduate Certificates [in four different fields of study]
- Undergraduate Diploma [in Pastoral Counselling]
- Bachelor of Divinity
- Bachelor of Divinity (Honours)
- Post-Graduate Diploma in Theology
- Master of Theology
- Doctor of Philosophy

The MTh programme began in 1987 with a concentration on Pacific Church History. Programmes in other disciplines have been added since: Biblical Studies in 1989, Church Ministries in 1992 and Theology in 1993. From 1999 onward, an integrated MTh programme has been offered. Since 1993, all MTh students who complete the first year of the programme with a grade average of at least a C are awarded the Post-Graduate Diploma in the discipline being studied. In 2004, PhD studies were introduced in partnership with Charles Sturt University (Australia). The agreement was reviewed in 2007 and the College Council, having deliberated carefully on the matter decided to terminate PTC's participation. During the same meeting, the Council further decided that as from 2008, PTC will offer its own PhD programme.

It is worth pointing out that the thesis component of all postgraduate work at PTC is always examined externally by regional and international scholars outside of PTC in order to safeguard the College's international standing.

THE COLLEGE CHAPEL

The College Chapel was built by contributions from all the Christian churches of the Pacific, including the Roman Catholic Church. In December, 1968 it was dedicated to the memory of the hundreds of Islander missionaries who proclaimed the Gospel across the full expanse of the Pacific. As each church made its contribution, it also presented a list of as many of its own missionaries as could be remembered who went overseas to other island groups, and these names were inscribed on a scroll which is kept in the College archives.

FORMER PRINCIPALS

1966-1971: The Reverend Dr George A. F. Knight

From the opening of the college in April 1966 under the leadership of the first Principal, the Reverend Dr Knight, PTC established an international reputation for quality theological education at degree and diploma levels, particularly in the three core areas of Biblical Studies (including biblical languages), Theology, and History of Christianity. At that time the buildings on campus (the teaching and office block, single students' dormitory, staff houses, and the first married students' flats) were completed with the help of a block grant from the Theological Educational Fund (late renamed as Ecumenical Theological Education, or ETE) of the World Council of Churches, as well as contributions from mission boards, and individual donors. During that time, funds were also raised for a fine library building which now graces the College.

1972-1976: The Reverend Alan Quigley

The Reverend Quigley encouraged the development of the Field Work Programme, and emphasised Pastoral & Development Studies. More attention was given to the Pacific orientation of the curriculum and College life.

1977-1981: The Reverend Dr Sione 'Amanaki Havea

The Pacific orientation of the curriculum and the broader development of College life were brought to fuller fruition during Rev. Dr Havea's tenure as Principal. A unique Women's Programme was developed for student wives and other women involved, besides the establishment of the Programme, the building of a child-care centre and more flats for couples and single women.

1982-1988: The Reverend Ilaitia Sevati Tuwere

The Reverend Tuwere became the fourth Principal of the College at a time when new opportunities and challenges had presented themselves - particularly a request to develop a graduate programme at Master's level. Under his leadership this programme was begun. In 1989 he left to undertake doctoral studies at the Melbourne College of Divinity. He returned to PTC in 1993 to take up a lecturing position in Theology.

1989-1991: The Reverend Dr Sione Latukefu

During the three years of Rev. Dr Sione Latukefu's principalship much was accomplished, including extensions to the Etina Havea Centre, the building of six student flats, two classrooms and four staff offices, the beginning of the Women's Centre, and the strengthening of the academic programme. For health reasons, Dr Latukefu was forced to cut short his stay at the College at the end of 1991.

1992-1994: The Reverend Dr Faitala Talapusi

Rev. Dr Talapusi facilitated the development of the new contextual curriculum.

Jan.-Dec. 1995: The Reverend Dr Samiuela Toa Finau

Rev. Dr Finau was Acting Principal for a year.

1996-2001: The Reverend Dr Jovili Iliesa Meo

At the November 1995 Council meeting, the Reverend Dr Meo was appointed as the seventh Principal of the College. Under his leadership the development of the extension programme and the extension of the main building to house the extension programme saw fruition. His tenure also saw the extension of the College Chapel to cater for the increasing number of the PTC community. He also helped to establish the God's Pacific People Programme.

Jan. 2002- Present: The Reverend Dr Uili Feleterika Nokise

The Reverend Dr Nokise became the eighth Principal in 2002, and continues to serve the College in this capacity.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

A. ASSESSMENT: SYSTEM OF GRADING

1. The following system is used to grade students' coursework. It should be noted that the grading criteria for each course, as well as the relation between assignments, exercises, tests and examinations are set by the lecturer concerned, though within the overall College framework.

Grade Category	Grade Number	Grade Points	Grade Classification
A+	90-100	10	Outstanding
A	85-89	9	Excellent
A–	80-84	8	Very Good
B+	75-79	7	Good
B	70-74	6	With Merit
B–	65-69	5	Fair
C+	60-64	4	Adequate
C	55-59	3	Pass
C–	50-54	2	Marginal pass
D	45-49	0	Not a Pass (must be raised)
F	Below 45	0	Failure (must be redone)
I		0	Incomplete (completion due)

Other grade categories and classifications:

S	Satisfactory
U	Unsatisfactory
Aud	Audit
W	Withdrawal

Grade category: Courses which assess students' work based on a fine-grading system indicate the course grade by means of the grade category in the first instance.

Grade number: Courses which assess students' work based on a fine-grading system use the grade number so as to more precisely show how the relevant work has been assessed. For example: "B+ / 78".

Grade classification : this is offered as a descriptive label for each category, but it is not usually spelled out in individual course grades.

Grade points: this system is being phased out; it is only used for grade average calculations where grade numbers are not available.

Courses which do not use fine-grading usually indicate performance by means of the classification ‘satisfactory’ or ‘unsatisfactory’. –

‘Successful completion’ of any individual course means a grade category above ‘D’, or an ‘S’.

2. BD(Hons) and MTh theses are graded as follows:

Grade Classification	Grade Number
Pass with High Distinction	90 – 100
Pass with Distinction	80 – 89
Pass with Merit	70 – 79
Pass	55 – 69
Pass with Conditions	50 – 54
Fail	Below 50

The grading system for PhD dissertations is indicated in the PhD regulations.

B. ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

1. Candidates whose cumulative grade average is below grade number 55 at the end of the first year of studies (full-time or equivalent) or at the end of any subsequent semester-half will be placed on academic probation. This status may be removed only by raising the average to grade number 55 or above by obtaining higher grades in subsequent courses.
2. Students are not permitted to take a full load of courses when carrying more than one I (Incomplete) grade from the previous term. Students who carry more than one I grade will lessen their normal course load by one course for each I grade they carry; e.g. a student carrying two I grades will only be able to take two courses. Such a situation can be avoided by the student completing the incomplete courses before the end of week two (course change deadline) of the new semester half.
3. An I grade not made-up by the week preceding the next registration week will be changed automatically to an F by the Registrar at the beginning of that registration week. Students who receive one or more I grades in two consecutive half semesters, or more than two I grades in any one half semester, will undergo a review by the Dean, who will assess their ability to continue in the programme in which they are enrolled.

4. An F grade in a course means that the student must repeat the course and pass it. Whether or not the student has to attend all classes will be determined by the lecturer concerned.
5. A D grade in a required course means that the student has to raise the grade by re-sitting the examinations and/or by submitting assignments as assigned by the lecturer concerned.
6. A student may request an upgrade of a final grade for a course under the following conditions: (1) The student must make the request to the lecturer concerned within one week of the release of the grades by the Registrar each semester-half. For the last semester-half, the upgrade of a final grade for a course will be possible in the first week of the first semester-half of the following year. (2) The lecturer must then inform the Academic Dean within one week of the request. The Academic Dean will determine the ability of the student to improve based on previous and present performance. (3) The lecturer will assign the student a substantial piece of new work, which will have to be completed by week six of the following semester-half. (4) The grade can only be improved by one letter grade, e.g. from a B to a B+. (5) An upgrade of more than one letter grade can only be granted in exceptional circumstances, and must be formally requested in a letter from the student to the Academic Dean.
7. A student who, for some legitimate health reasons, is unable to complete a course, may be assessed on his/her course performance and may be given an “aegrotat” pass at the discretion of the lecturer responsible, in consultation with the Academic Dean. In highly exceptional circumstances beyond the student's control, such as the withdrawal of a student by a sponsoring church during or after Week 5 of a semester-half, a lecturer may also grant a “compassionate” pass, following consultation with the Academic Dean, and with explicit approval of the Faculty in each case. Compassionate or aegrotat passes are not classified or fine-graded; they count as successful completion of a course, but are not taken into account for the calculation of the total grade average for the degree.

8. Assignments will not be accepted after the due date unless the lecturer concerned has been approached beforehand and has given his/her agreement for an appropriate extension of grace period.
9. Written assignments for a 100 learning hour course will not normally exceed 4.000 words (degree-level) or 6.000 words (postgraduate level) in total for the whole course. The word count does not include the bibliography.
10. Language courses are not normally for audit since daily preparation of the course work is essential to these classes.
11. Class attendance in courses taught in a residential / face-to-face setting is obligatory. Excessive lateness may be counted as absence. A student must inform the lecturer ahead of time (if possible) if she/he is unable to attend class. If a student is absent for more than 15% of classes, he/she must bring a medical doctor's certificate to the Registrar. Any further absence will usually have an adverse effect on the student's final grade for the course, i.e., if a student is absent for more than 15% of the classes without a valid excuse, the lecturer may deduct 2 grade points per hour missed beyond the 15% limit. A lecturer may decide to be more lenient in the case of students who are absent for documented medical reasons. If a student is absent for 40% or more of class time (e.g., 12 or more hours out of 28), the lecturer may decide to issue a 'Fail' grade, regardless of the student's performance in assessed work submitted up until that point. This also applies to students who are absent from class for documented medical reasons.

C. COMPUTER LITERACY

Computer courses are offered for all first year students who are not sufficiently computer literate. Students must satisfactorily complete the course assigned to them.

D. GENERAL POLICIES AND INFORMATION

1. Poor Academic Practice, Plagiarism and Cheating

In Pacific cultural contexts, as elsewhere, the acknowledgement of ownership of property is an expected custom. In the academic setting, failure to abide by the above virtue is recognised as plagiarism and cheating. It is clear that plagiarism and cheating are morally wrong, and academically unacceptable practice. Students, therefore, need to see them as ethical and cultural offences as well as academic misconduct.

- a. Plagiarism and poor academic practice are defined at PTC as using someone else's words or ideas without giving clear acknowledgement of the source of those words or ideas. This includes direct copying of single words or groups of words from printed sources such as published books, journals, manuscripts, or any other media (e.g., electronic texts) without acknowledgement. It also includes using ideas that have been read or heard, even when they are presented in different words from those in the original, without acknowledging the source. Plagiarism is a deliberate, intentional act; poor academic practice is unintentional. Neither is acceptable.
- If a lecturer discovers poor academic practice in any assignment or other work produced as part of the student's programme of studies, the lecturer gives the student one chance to redo the paper. If it happens again, the student receives an 'F' for the course. If it happens again in another time or another course an 'F' grade is given for that course.
 - If a lecturer discovers any plagiarism in any assignment or other work produced as part of the student's programme of studies, the lecturer gives the student one chance to redo the paper. The re-submitted paper will not be graded above the grade category 'B'. If it happens again, the student receives an 'F' for the course. If it happens again in another time or another course an 'F' grade is given for that course.
 - If a student believes that he/she has been wrongly charged with plagiarism or poor academic practice, an appeal can be made through the student's adviser to the Principal who will begin an appeal process, which will involve the Academic Advisory Committee. This committee will make a recommendation to the full faculty, who shall make a final decision.
 - Lecturers will inform the Academic Dean of every instance of student plagiarism or poor academic practice they encounter. The Academic Dean will maintain a list of students of who have produced work deemed to constitute poor academic practice or plagiarism. The list is distributed to teaching faculty whenever it is updated.
- b. Cheating is understood as any dishonest act in which a student deliberately deceives others in order to gain an unfair advantage. This includes looking at and copying another person's work with or without permission of the person who did the work originally. It also includes the case of a student asking someone else to write assessed work for him-/herself.

- If a staff member determines a student has cheated, he or she will first discuss the matter with the student concerned. If the student denies the charge, an appeal can be made through the student's adviser to the Principal who will begin an appeals process, which will involve the Academic Advisory Committee.
- If it is determined that cheating has taken place, a grade of "F" will be given to the assignment or examination in question and the matter will be reported to the Principal. The case may be brought to the faculty at the discretion of the Principal.

2. Registration

- The student must consult his/her adviser on academic planning before registration.
- The student must register for every course she/he intends to follow either for credit or audit. If the student is not registered in any course, she/he cannot be given a grade for it.
- Registration must be completed by the end of the registration period as scheduled on the College Calendar.
- There will be an additional fee of $65.00 for late registration.
- Changes to course registration must be completed by the second week of lectures each semester, as scheduled in the College Calendar.
- If a student withdraws from a course after the second week of lectures, a "W" will appear on his/her transcript for the course. Withdrawal is only possible before the deadline for the last piece of assessed work for the course concerned has passed. A part-time student who withdraws from a course before the fifth week of lectures will be refunded half of the course fee. No refund will be given for any later withdrawal.

Students wishing to audit courses may do so if they have the approval of both the lecturer concerned and their own adviser. Auditing a course carries no credit though the course will appear in the transcript with the appropriate symbol (AU). Textbooks for the course will not normally be issued to those who audit unless spare copies are available.

3. Processing of student's grades

Lecturers are usually required to submit grades for each semester-half to the Registrar during the first week of the following semester-half. Grades for semester-half 2B must be submitted to the Registrar on the Wednesday following Assessment Week.

Departments are required to discuss all course grades within the department prior to handing them in to the Registrar.

The Registrar processes the grade information before submitting it to the Faculty Meeting for approval.

All grades given by lecturers are provisional until they are approved by the Faculty Meeting.

4. General Thesis and Dissertation Regulations

Language

Theses written at PTC, whether at Bachelor, Masters, or doctoral level, are examined by qualified, independent examiners (i.e., not PTC faculty members) from the region and beyond. Therefore, any thesis produced at PTC is to be written in the English language, and must be written in a formal, academic style acceptable in an international context. Any words, phrases, or text excerpts from another language (such as Greek, Hebrew, Fijian, Bislama, French, etc.) must be additionally translated into English.

The use of proofreaders is encouraged.

Special permission to write the entire thesis (or substantial parts thereof) in a language other than English without a translation into English may be requested in cases where the topic demands this. Such permission must be obtained, in writing (via the supervisor and the Academic Dean), from Faculty. Copies of the document confirming such permission must be included in an appendix to the thesis.

Thesis Declaration

Every thesis written as part of the requirements for a particular degree programme at PTC must include the following thesis statement (signed by the student):

I, the undersigned, hereby declare that this thesis, which is words in length (excluding the bibliography and front matter), has been written by me, that it is the result of work carried out by me, and that it has not been submitted, either in whole or in part, in any previous written work for an academic award at this or any other academic institution.

I also declare that this thesis has not used any material, heard or read, without academically appropriate acknowledgment of the source.

Copyright Statement and Supervisor's Approval

Once the thesis or dissertation has been examined and passed, and any changes required by the examiners have been approved by the supervisor, the following copyright statement is printed on a separate page prior to lodgin the final version of the thesis or dissertation with the library of PTC, via the Academic Dean. On the same page, the supervisor indicates his/her approval of the changes made in response to the examiners' requirements by means of the following statement:

I, the undersigned, hereby grant limited copyright to my thesis or dissertation to the Pacific Theological College. The College is entitled to

- make printed copies available for fair academic use in the library of the College, and, if the College so choses, to make printed copies available, in part or as a whole, to individual researchers or institutions;
- make electronic copies available for fair academic use, either online (by the College itself or via another institution) or in other electronic formats.

I understand that, notwithstanding the above, the College will not publish my work for commercial purposes, that I have copyright of my work and am therefore at liberty to publish my work independently, with or without revision, in part or as a whole.

BD(Hons) and MTh Thesis Process

It is the student's responsibility to approach their advisor, the appropriate department, or, if in doubt, the Academic Dean, at least two months before the thesis writing stage begins, so that a suitable supervisor is allocated from within the teaching faculty.

The thesis work required as part of the BD(Hons) and MTh programmes is characterised by tight deadlines, which are designed to ensure that students can graduate at the end of a given academic year. A student who misses one or more deadlines in the process cannot be guaranteed graduation at the end of a given year even if the thesis is awarded a pass-grade. It is the responsibility of each student to submit work at the appropriate time(s). The specific deadlines for a given academic year will be published separately for each academic year.

5. Awarding of Degrees

Requirements are set as criteria for a successful completion of any of the degrees. These requirements have to be satisfied fully prior to the awarding of the degree in question. Neither the certificate for the academic award nor the academic transcripts will be issued to students who have not settled their debts in full.

6. Community Prizes

The award of the following community prizes may be considered:

The John Tidex Prize for Community Work, to be awarded to a male student or community member's outstanding contribution to the PTC community.

The Fiona McAdam Prize for Community Work, to be awarded to a female student or community member's outstanding contribution to the PTC community.

The Jean Bell Prize for Leadership and Example, to be awarded to female community member who has demonstrated outstanding qualities in leadership.

E. RESEARCH SEMINARS

Postgraduate students (i.e., PgDipl, MTh, PhD) participate in relevant research fora:

- the Postgraduate Departmental Seminars (all postgraduate students associated with that department),
- the Common Thesis Seminar (all postgraduate students), and
- the PhD Colloquium (PhD students).

Further details are spelled out in the individual academic award regulations. Part-time students who are not resident on campus or the greater Suva area may be exempted from some of these obligations.

F. SPATS AND FHEC REGULATIONS

The College is in the process of changing its regulations in order to achieve compliance with the new Accreditation Standards & Guidelines of the South Pacific Association of Theological Schools (SPATS) and the Qualifications Framework of the Fiji Higher Education Commission (FHEC).

Some of the required components of this change are already integrated into the various academic award regulations in this edition of the PTC Handbook (e.g., learning hours). Other aspects of the required changes, which are mostly of a terminological nature, will be completed in 2016. The Handbook will be updated once this process is complete.

Nevertheless, in principle PTC already operates with the required system of learning levels (LL), notional learning hours (NLH) and credits (C). These details will be printed in future editions of this Handbook. This will allow us to indicate

- the learning level (LL) at which work in a given course is carried out;
- the notional learning hours (NLH), i.e., the estimated length of time which a student would have to spend in order to achieve the desired learning outcome for a given course or award; and
- the credits (C) given towards a particular academic award, which are associated with a given academic learning process.

Notional learning hours and credit points stand in a relation of 10 to 1: that is, one credit point represents ten notional learning hours (e.g., a course with a 100 NLHs attracts 10 Cs).

G. COURSE CODE SYSTEM

The course code system currently used at PTC establishes a unique relationship between course code and course title which does not change from year to year. A given course code has five parts, each consisting of a single letter or a double-digit number. The letters I, J and O are never used (to avoid confusion: I/J/L or O/0).¹

Level	Discipline	Requirement	Mode	Number
Single letter	Double-digit number	Single letter	Single letter	Double-digit number

Level codes

- W: Women's Programme Certificate courses;
- C: PTCEE Certificate courses;
- D: PTCEE Diploma courses;
- U: Undergraduate Certificate and Diploma courses;
- B: BD courses (regardless of BD/BDHons distinction);
- P: PgDipl/MTh courses.

Discipline codes

- 10: Academic Skills;
- 20: Biblical Studies;
- 30: Church History;
- 40: Church Ministry;
- 50: Theology & Ethics;
- 60: Interdisciplinary or 'other';
- 70: Research project / thesis.

¹ These course codes might change in 2017, as a result of the changes in nomenclature used in the SPATS and FHEC Qualification Frameworks. We plan to add coded information on learning levels as well as academic credits (which are linked to learning hours): that is, the current code system will be built upon, but not fundamentally altered.

Course requirement codes

- For the various Certificates and Diplomas at or below degree level:
 - R: Required
 - E: Elective
- For the BD and BD(Hons):
 - B: Required for the BD
 - F: Foundation course (by definition: required for BD)
 - H: Required additionally for the BD(Hons)
 - E: Electives (not currently in use)
 - N: Not credit-bearing (may be obligatory for certain students).
- For postgraduate courses (PgDipl, MTh):
 - C: Core course
 - S: Specialisation course
 - M: Thesis seminar

Delivery mode code

- D: Extension / distance education mode (that is, by distance only)
- F: Face-to-face / residential mode (that is, if a course involves a required on-site component)

Course numbers:

A double-digit number, in simple, consecutive sequence. New or substantially revised courses are given the next higher number available.

The thesis should provide evidence of the candidate's ability to do independent research and to make an original contribution to existing body of knowledge in the area of study.

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

The PhD degree provides the opportunity for the candidate to pursue independent research in a specialised topic that reflects scholarly, Pacific and ecumenical interests. There is expected an original contribution to be made in that particular field of study. The quality of the research should be of a kind expected of a conscientious and diligent student to produce within the timeframe designated for the degree, to be completed under the regulations for fulltime and part-time studies.

REGULATIONS

A. ADMISSION PROCESS

1. Admission to the PhD programme is subject to the approval of the Principal on the recommendation of the Board of Graduate Studies.
2. Applications may be made at any time.
3. Applicants must complete the prescribed form from the Registrar's Office.
4. Every applicant must provide required academic transcripts and any other evidence of ability to undertake independent research in the area of proposed study. Such evidence shall include the following:
 - i. A Master of Theology degree or equivalent, with a B+ average or above in the appropriate research component from an accredited institution;
 - ii. A successfully completed English proficiency test before or within the six months of application. English skills competency (IELTS) test score is at least 6.0 .
5. The Registrar, on receiving the prescribed application form, will check to ensure that all required details are included BEFORE the application is forwarded to the Academic Dean. If the form is incomplete, it will be returned to the applicant for completion and resubmission.

6. The Academic Dean on receiving the completed application form from the Registrar, shall convene a meeting of the Board of Graduate Studies to discuss the application and appoint a supervisor.
7. The Board of Graduate Studies, after full discussion of the application, will forward a recommendation to the Principal for approval.
8. The Principal through the Registrar's Office, will notify the applicant, home church and/or sponsor of the recommendation of the Board of Graduate Studies, as to whether or not the applicant is offered a place in the programme.
9. If the application is rejected, the applicant may lodge an appeal to the Board of Appeal within 20 working days of receiving the notice.
10. The Board of Appeals' decision is final.
11. Successful applicants, on receiving their offer of a place in the program, must notify in writing to the Registrar of his or her acceptance of the offer within 20 working days of receipt of the offer.

B. CANDIDATURE

1. A student admitted to the degree programme shall be on probation for one year, and the student must produce a thesis proposal within six months of enrolment. The proposal must be recommended by the Head of Department to the Academic Dean for approval.
2. A student who would like to specialise in Biblical Studies should have at least a basic proficiency in one biblical language (Hebrew or Greek), depending on the field of research chosen. Hebrew and Greek challenge exams will be offered at the beginning of a student's studies at PTC. Those who do not pass will need to take and pass introductory language courses in either Hebrew or Greek at BD level.
3. A student shall present annually a seminar paper, with the approval of the supervisor, on a part of his/her research.
4. Confirmation of official candidature for full-time students shall occur only after one year of full-time studies, and on receipt by the Academic Dean from the supervisor of a satisfactory thesis proposal and progress report.

5. If confirmation of official candidature is not approved for a full-time student, a provisional confirmation may be granted for a further period of up to one year provided a satisfactory progress report has been received by the Dean within or at the end of the designated extended period.
6. Confirmation of official candidature for part-time students shall occur after two years of part-time studies; and on receipt by the Academic Dean from the supervisor of a satisfactory thesis proposal and progress report.
7. If there is no confirmation of candidature for a part-time student, a provisional confirmation may be granted for a period up to two years, provided a satisfactory progress report has been received by the Dean by the end of the designated extended period.
8. If the candidature for a full-time student is still not granted after the one year extension period the student shall be required to withdraw from the programme.
9. If the candidature for a part-time student is still not granted after the two-year extension period, the student shall be required to withdraw from the programme.

C. DURATION OF STUDIES

1. Full-time Study

Enrolment should be on a fulltime basis if the programme to be followed represents the principal activity of the candidate. Full time study is no less than 3 years and no more than 6 years. The notional learning hours associated with each full-time year of study is 1200. It is to be expected that many students will need substantially more than the minimum period of 3 years to complete the programme.

2. Part-time Study

Enrolment should be on a part-time basis if the programme to be followed does not represent the primary activity of the candidate. Part time study may be completed in no less than 5 years and no more than 8 years.

D. SUPERVISORS

1. The Board of Graduate Studies, on the recommendation of the Academic Dean, in consultation with the relevant Head of Department, shall appoint a supervisor for the student. The Academic Dean, in consultation with the supervisor and the faculty, may appoint secondary supervisors to assist the supervisor with specific aspects of candidate's research. Any such supervisors that are not members of the College's teaching faculty shall be remunerated for their work.
2. During the first six months of the student's studies, the supervisor will work with the candidate on his/her thesis proposal. At the end of six months, this thesis proposal shall be submitted to the Academic Dean for approval.
3. In the case of a dispute between a candidate and a supervisor, which cannot be satisfactorily resolved by the Academic Dean, the Board of Graduate Studies shall have discretion to replace the supervisor.
4. For duties / expectations of supervisors and supervisees, see the College document entitled Responsibilities of Supervisors and Responsibilities of Candidates.

E. RESEARCH SEMINARS

1. During the course of their studies, PhD students will actively participate in the relevant postgraduate departmental seminars, the common thesis seminars, and the PhD Colloquium.
2. Part-time students residing outside of Fiji may be partially exempted from this requirement.
3. PhD students will present a progress paper at least once a year in the context of the PhD Colloquium.

F. PROGRESS REPORTS

4. While a student is on probation, progress reports signed by the student's supervisor and the head of department shall be submitted to the Academic Dean on a six monthly basis.
5. Once the candidature has been confirmed, reports shall be submitted on an annual basis.

6. If a progress report is unsatisfactory, the Board of Graduate Studies, may, after appropriate consultation, recommend to the Principal to terminate the candidacy.
7. Progress report must include objectives and time frames for the student's work.

G. COMPLETION AND SUBMISSION OF THE THESIS

1. A candidate may not present a thesis which has previously been submitted for another Degree.
2. A thesis shall consist of about 100,000 words of text (inclusive of footnotes/endnotes), excluding appendices and bibliographies.
3. The candidate and the supervisor should be in agreement that the thesis is ready for submission. The Supervisor then advises the Academic Dean through writing of such intention a month prior to submission.
4. Four bound copies of the thesis shall be submitted for examination in accordance with the regulations as set out in the section "Presentation and Defence".
5. On receiving the four copies, the Academic Dean is to acknowledge through a letter to the student and the supervisor that the thesis has been submitted.
6. A written report from the supervisor must accompany the four copies of the thesis using the appropriate form for such a report.
7. The Academic Dean arranges for copies of the thesis to be released to members of the Board of Examiners.

H. EXAMINATION OF THESIS

1. Examiners

- a. A student's thesis shall be examined by three qualified examiners who are appointed by the Board of Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the Academic Dean after having consulted the Head of Department and the supervisor.
- b. A supervisor or an ex-supervisor cannot be appointed as an examiner.
- c. The Board of Graduate Studies appoints and authorises an independent Convener:
 - to convene the Board of Examiners;
 - to chair the Oral Defence; and

- to announce the results of the oral defence and/or any further action to be taken.
- d. The Convener and the Examiners constitute the Board of Examiners.
- e. The Convener is not an examiner of the thesis but a person who coordinates the Examiners' reports and submits a written report on the recommendation of the examiners.
- f. The identities of the examiners are not divulged to one another, nor to the candidate, until after their reports have been submitted.

2. Presentation and Oral Defence

There are two main components of the Defence process:

a. Written Report (Evaluation)

- Each Examiner shall provide a written report on the thesis, within eight weeks of having received it, using the Examiner's Evaluation Form with a preliminary recommendation towards a final result.

b. Oral Defence

- An oral defence is required within three months of submission of the thesis.
- The subject of the oral defence is the thesis of the candidate.
- The Convener of the Board of Examiners chairs the oral Defence of the thesis.
- Preferably all three examiners, but at least two must be present in the oral Defence, with one of them being the examiner from the Pacific Islands.
- Oral Defence is to be held at the Pacific Theological College. On an exceptional situation, an appropriate venue may be arranged with the approval of the Board of Graduate Studies.
- The candidate must pass the oral defence and have the thesis 'accepted' (with or without conditions; see section H.2.) in order to qualify for the degree.
- Once all examiners' reports are received and the date of the oral defence is set, the candidate will be informed of the date, the names of the examiners, and the content of the examiners' comments on the thesis, but not the preliminary recommendation towards a final result (see section G.2.a.). The candidate is not permitted to communicate with the examiners in respect of the examination process until the entire examination process is complete, apart from the necessary interaction during the oral defence itself.

- At the end of the oral Defence, the Board of examiners recommendations are announced publicly by the Convener of the Board of Examiners.

I. RESULTS OF EXAMINATION

1. The results of the Defence are publicly declared by the Convener at the venue of defence.
2. The following conditions are to accompany the result of the examiner's assessment. (See also the Academic Guidelines above).

 - accepted with minor editorial corrections (the corrections required are minor and can be completed within a month. The convener to check that the corrections have been made satisfactorily);
 - accepted after amendments have been made to the satisfaction of the Convener of the Board of Examiners in consultation with members of the Board. (The amendments required can be completed within three months.)
 - to be revised and resubmit for examination. (The thesis is not of the required PhD standard and requires substantial revision involving up to six months of work or more.)
 - rejected with no right of resubmission. (The thesis is not of the required PhD standard and there is no likelihood that a revision will bring it up to that standard.)

J. INFORMING THE CANDIDATE OF THE RESULTS

1. Once the results are decided, the Convener declares the results.
2. If the thesis requires further work, then the recommendations from the Board of Examiners shall accompany the Academic Dean's letter of notification to the candidate and the Supervisor.
3. In case of a 'rejection' of the thesis, the candidate has the right to appeal, within ten working days, the decision to the Board of Appeal.
4. The Board of Appeal shall meet at the earliest to consider this appeal; its decision shall be final.

5. The Board of Appeal shall consist of three qualified persons appointed by the Principal.

K. CONFERRAL OF THE DEGREE

1. The Council (or Executive) awards the Degree by endorsing the Board of Examiners' Examination recommendation.
2. The Chairperson of the Pacific Theological College Council will confer the Degree on the successful candidate during the annual graduation ceremony of the College.

MASTER OF THEOLOGY PROGRAMME

The PTC Master of Theology (MTh) programme began in 1987 and is accredited by SPATS. The programme is available full-time or part-time, and admission is usually granted at the beginning of every academic year.

Purpose

The MTh is an advanced postgraduate programme that consists of rigorous and integrated biblical, theological, pastoral/ministerial and historical studies intended to equip the student to serve in our Pacific church context in the modern world in specialised areas of ministry. It provides advanced education in selected fields of theological study to enable the student to become better equipped for theological teaching, for a particular form of Christian ministry in the Pacific, to pursue an academic interest, or for the general enrichment of his/her Christian life and work. The programme leads the student into the fields of contextualisation of theological interpretation and expression of the Christian faith. When taken as a full-time programme, the MTh takes two years to complete. For each student, the MTh programme involves a special focus in one of the following disciplines:

- Biblical Studies: Old Testament
- Biblical Studies: New Testament
- Church History
- Theology and Ethics
- Church Ministry.

Objectives

On completion of the MTh, candidates should be able to

- research issues of concern to Pacific churches;
- critically analyse data and interpret it appropriately;
- contextualise theology and faith expressions in their own cultural context;
- make Oceanic contributions to theological knowledge;
- teach theology up to BD level;
- do further specialized research and studies.

General Admission Requirements

Applicants to the MTh programme should preferably have at least two years of experience in some form of full-time Christian ministry after completing their BD or other university degree(s). Church-sponsored applicants require endorsement by the head of a recognised denomination and must have guaranteed financial support. Private students may be admitted, provided they fulfil the appropriate entrance criteria. Priority will be given to church-sponsored students.

Definitions

Church-sponsored student: one who has been endorsed, sent and sponsored by a church. Privately-funded student: one whose fees are not paid by the church. Residential student: one who lives on the PTC campus. Part-time student: one who takes no more than four courses per semester.

Academic Admission Requirements

In addition to the general admission requirements, applicants also need to fulfil the following academic requirements. The applicant

1. should have graduated with a Bachelor's degree (3 years full-time equivalent) not more than 10 years before applying for the MTh programme, unless the applicant has taught in an academic institution since gaining the Bachelor degree.
2. should have gained at least a 'B' average in the intended area of specialization in the last two years of their BD studies.
3. shall write an academic paper on an appropriate topic set by the relevant department of the College to test their theological knowledge as well as their competence in the intended field of specialization with a minimum of 50% pass grade of this paper. This paper shall accompany the completed application forms.
4. must demonstrate an appropriate standard of English comprehension through an English proficiency assessment approved by the Board of Graduate Studies, and gain at least a 50% pass grade, or a pass grade of 5.5 in an IELTS (Academic) test.
5. who wishes to specialise in either Old Testament or New Testament Studies must demonstrate at least a basic proficiency in Hebrew or Greek respectively (applicants who fail this test will be required to take and pass introductory classes in either Hebrew 1&2 or Greek 1&2 at BD level).

6. who holds a Bachelor's degree outside the field of theology will be required to successfully complete a qualifying year in theological studies at BD level before formally entering the MTh programme; the grade average of all courses in this qualifying year must be B or better.

Application forms are available from the Registrar's office. Applications for full-time study should be completed and received by October 15, especially if applicants wish to reside on campus. MTh applicants whose documentation arrives too late to be processed fully may be admitted to the PgDipl instead, at the discretion of the College.

Requirements for Graduation

The MTh will be awarded to candidates who have

- successfully completed no fewer than fourteen (14) credit-bearing courses, including the ten specified core course from across the disciplines, as well as four (4) further specialisation courses;
- passed the thesis component;
- for residential students, satisfactorily participated in the spiritual and community life of the College;
- cleared all outstanding debts to the College.

The MTh will be awarded with distinction if a candidate has, in addition to the above,

- successfully completed the course work with an average of no less than 'A-', and
- earned at least a pass with distinction for their thesis.

Cross Crediting

MTh level courses completed at other theological institutions or universities may be considered for cross-crediting by the Academic Advisory Committee, with the final approval of the faculty. Only courses successfully completed in the ten (10) years prior to the application will be considered for cross-crediting. No more than 50% of the coursework for the MTh programme may be credited in this way.

Programme

The MTh programme is intended to help the candidate do concentrated study and research for the purpose of attaining a certain level of specialisation in a particular theological discipline. The programme involves coursework and a thesis. All MTh students, regardless of specialization, take the same number of courses overall, and take certain core courses from all theological disciplines. However, specialisation is safeguarded through concentration on a particular discipline, both in the thesis component and in coursework.

Two core courses each are taken from the fields of general academic skills, church history, ministry, as well as theology and ethics. There is only one Biblical Studies core course, since the hermeneutical focus of the theology and ethics core course connects with the Biblical studies core course.

Full-time and Part-time Studies

Full-time students are expected to complete the programme normally in two years. A full time student who has not completed his/her course work and thesis during the second year of study, is expected to complete them within two extra years. She/he, however, make a request in writing for the extension period needed, i.e., not more than two years, from the Department concerned. The Head of the Department will consult with the Academic Dean and the Principal before a recommendation is made to the Faculty for endorsement of whatever decision they have made.

The course work must be completed and the thesis must be submitted within the maximum extension period. If by the end of the extension period these conditions have not been met, the candidate forfeits the degree.

Part-time students are expected to complete the MTh. degree in not more than six (6) years. The part-time student must complete the course work within a period of four years, and submit a thesis within six years of entering the programme.

Remedial Work

A student in the MTh programme may be required to do remedial course work if his/her background in the area of specialisation is considered not adequate.

Practical library skills training and computer literacy training is also available and may be required of individual students, over and above the general academic skills course as well as the thesis skills course.

Probation

All first year Masters students are on probation. To enter the thesis writing stage of the programme, a student must gain, at the end of Year 1, a B- average or above in his/her coursework in all credit-bearing courses. A student who does not fulfil this requirement will not normally be permitted to continue in the MTh programme, but will be offered the opportunity to transfer to the Post-Graduate Diploma programme (see below), or, with the approval of the faculty, to repeat all or part of the MTh Year 1 programme if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the student may be able to achieve the required grade average on a second attempt.

Research Seminars

During the course of their studies, MTh students will actively participate in the relevant Postgraduate Departmental Seminars as well as the Common Thesis Seminars. Part-time students residing outside of Fiji may be partially exempted from this requirement. MTh students will present a progress paper in the Common Thesis Seminar, usually in Year 2 of their studies.

MTh Thesis

The thesis is a vital part of the MTh programme. Every student will undertake research on a topic approved by the Department concerned. In addition to the student's research undertaken during his/her time at PTC, the summer vacation between the first and second years will be used to do field and/or library research either in Suva, in the Pacific country to which the thesis is related, and/or in some other place where relevant materials are located.

The expected length of the thesis is about 30,000 words, which includes the abstract, introduction, text (chapters) and the conclusion.

The following procedure applies from the beginning to the submission of a thesis:

- The candidate must submit a thesis proposal to the theological Department of specialisation. Upon its satisfaction with the proposal, the Department will present it to the Faculty for approval by October 30 of the first year of study, and the title of the proposal shall be sent to the Academic Dean.
- The candidate must make a successful seminar presentation of a chapter or a major section of this thesis to the common thesis seminar during the second year of study. No thesis may be submitted unless its author has satisfactorily done a seminar presentation of his/her thesis.
- A complete draft of the whole thesis (prior to proof-reading) must be given to the supervisor by the deadline set in the academic calendar

(usually early August). Comments will be returned within a fortnight. A complete final draft (after proof-reading) is given to the supervisor by due date set (usually the end of August). Only electronic document formatting issues remain at this stage.

- The thesis must be submitted to the Academic Dean, with the approval of the supervisor, by the deadline set in the academic calendar (usually early September). This is to ensure that it can be graded in time for graduation in November.
- A student who submits his/her thesis after these due dates cannot be guaranteed graduation in November of that year.
- In extenuating circumstances, a candidate may request an extension period for submitting his/her thesis. The candidate will request the extension in writing by September 30 of the current year of study. For a full-time candidate, this period will be two years maximum. Only one year of extension will be granted at a time.

A part-time student must submit the thesis within six (6) years of starting the programme.

Theses that have been examined and returned with conditions must be so revised prior to the candidate being awarded the degree.

A thesis that has been examined and deemed failed cannot be re-submitted.

Academic Prizes

Only graduating students will be considered for academic prizes. The following prizes may be awarded:

- The Faculty Prize for Distinction in Masters Thesis Work may be awarded to those whose thesis work achieved distinction or high distinction.
- The PTC Prize for Overall Academic Excellence in the Masters Programme may be awarded to those are awarded the Master of Theology with distinction or high distinction.
- For each of the four theological departments (Biblical Studies, Theology & Ethics, Church History, Church Ministry), a Departmental Prize for Excellent Masters Coursework in the Field of Specialisation may be awarded to a student who has not been awarded the Prize for Overall Academic Excellence, but who has completed all courses in the field of specialisation with the highest average at or over 80/A-.

CORE COURSE DESCRIPTIONS (2016)

P10CF01 Academic Skills (AS Core 1)

This course will introduce students to essential skills for academic theological work at postgraduate level. The course concentrates on academic reading and writing of theological texts, and of critical thinking as a permeation feature. It creates the foundation for postgraduate theological work on which individual courses in different disciplines can build, and also for the course in research skills offered later in the year.

P10CF02 Research Skills (AS Core 2)

This course is designed to help students develop skills in designing and conducting academic research projects under supervision, including an academic thesis. The course will present practical skills and their theoretical underpinnings as far as they are relevant to research in the theological disciplines.

P20CF03 Biblical Hermeneutics & Interpretation 1 (BS Core 1)

This Biblical Studies core course for the MTh programme offers an advanced orientation to exegetical methods, ranging from traditional historical-critical exegesis to newer approaches such as narrative and social-scientific interpretation. The question of the relevance of approaches that originated in modern Western culture within a Pacific framework will permeate the course. The course does not assume knowledge of the Biblical languages.

P20CF04 Biblical Hermeneutics & Interpretation 2 (BS Core 2)

This Biblical Studies core course for the MTh programme offers an advanced orientation to the hermeneutical foundations of exegetical methods and their relation to various theological disciplines (e.g. reading the Bible for ethics; ministry; etc.). The course will include a focus on liberationist, postcolonial, and reader-response approaches. The question of the relevance of approaches that originated in other cultures within a Pacific framework will permeate the course. The course does not assume knowledge of the Biblical languages.

P30CF01 History of the Ecumenical Movement (CH Core 1)

This course introduces the student to the history of the modern ecumenical movement from the time of the 19th century until the formative years of the World Council of Churches (WCC) and into major debates and crucial conflicts in the following three decades. Special attention will be given to the merger of the International Mission Council with WCC and the formation of Regional Council of Churches. We will work mostly with primary sources (documents, speeches and resolutions), so that the course enables the students to work with original documents and to interpret them in the context of their time. The course will focus on the three different roots of the ecumenical movement: mission, social ethics and doctrine.

P30CF02 History of the Ecumenical Movement in the Pacific (CH Core 2)

This course will examine the history of ecumenism in the Pacific from the 1920s when the idea of cooperation amongst the churches was first mooted to the present day. Specifically, the course will trace the history of the three major ecumenical bodies: Pacific Conference of Churches; Pacific Theological College; and, the South Pacific Association of Theological Schools. Ecumenical concerns, problems and challenges that emerged over the years will be examined within the context of the above three organizations.

P40CF01 Sociology of Religion 1 (CM Core 1)

The course introduces students to classical and contemporary theories and approaches from the discipline of Sociology of Religion. Much can be learned about religion from a sociological perspective, from reading classical sociological theories of religious organization and practice, including major theorists like Karl Marx, Max Weber, and Emile Durkheim. This is in order to develop the theoretical perspectives and tools enabling students to gain a greater understanding of how human beings experience religion in groups or through forms created by social organizations. Students will reflect on how the western understanding of Sociology of Religion is relevant to the context of the Pacific Islands to review old and develop new models of ministry in a cross-cultural setting today.

P40CF02 Sociology of Religion 2 (CM Core 2)

The course explores religion's role in shaping people, events, and societies in the contemporary world from a sociological perspective. The relationship of religion and religious institutions to the wider society will be discussed. Here the church and its institutions will be viewed in relation to other institutions, focussing on issues of power, legitimisation and community functioning. Specific attention will be given to processes of secularization and globalisation, the concomitant dynamics of social change and its effects on the societies of the Pacific Islands. In group work and case study projects the students will be encouraged to design strategies on how the church could and should respond to the various cross-cultural and inter-religious challenges today.

P50CF01 Theological Hermeneutics (TE Core 1)

The course aims to familiarize students with the science of interpreting, and in particular, theological texts, meaning, and sayings. However, interpretation is done not only to texts, (written or oral), but also to art, dance, song and poetry, traditions and cultural rituals, bodily language etc. In the first place, the course will briefly explore the following: (Greek) classical hermeneutics; the Antiochean (literal) and Alexandrian (allegorical) biblical interpretive schools; the rise of modern theories of hermeneutics in the 19th century in both philosophy (Dilthey, Heidegger, Gadamer, Ricoeur, etc) and especially theology (Bultmann, Barth, Vanhoozer, etc). Secondly, the main component of the course will explore other contemporary approaches to theological hermeneutics, including the following: liberation theological hermeneutics, feminist and narrative theological hermeneutics, and ethnographic and contextual theological hermeneutics. Attempts will be made also to investigate the practices of interpretation in the Oceanian stories; and some preliminary theorizing will be given about the rationale behind such interpretation.

P50CF02 Methods in Ethics (TE Core 2)

This course offers an overview of different interpretative approaches used in ethical analysis. In the first place the course will explore the classical approaches or methods in ethics, including deontological teleological, situational-relational, and virtue. In the second place, the course will also explore the use of contemporary literary, narrative and ethnographic methods in the development of theological ethics. Special emphasis will be on ethnographic methods with specific focus on the power and influence of cultures in Oceania in ethical analysis. Students will be challenged to develop holistic ways of reflecting on moral experience in the region by using these methods to interpret moral dimensions of Scripture, Pacific songs, stories and art forms, and in-depth conversation with cultural norms in the region.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

P20SF02 Studies in the Letters ascribed to Paul (SC NT)

This course will concentrate on general aspects of contemporary Pauline scholarship (part1) as well as a particular text (part 2). For example, part 1 would discuss issues such as the so-called ‘new perspective’ on Paul. In part 2, the course will focus on one of the letters of Paul (e.g. Romans, or 1 Corinthians), including some detailed exegetical work based on the Greek text. Generic skills applicable to the study of any of the Pauline letters will be part of the agenda of the course. The course will normally work on the basis of the Greek text.

P20SF04 Studies in the Torah (SC OT)

This course provides a broad, advanced introduction to the first five books of the Hebrew Bible known in the Jewish tradition as Torah. Part of the course will also take a special focus either on the study of one of the books of the Torah or on the study of a particular theme running through the Torah. This will entail detailed analysis and interpretation of selected passages from a chosen book or from the books of the Torah as a whole. The course will normally work on the basis of the Hebrew text

P20SF05 Studies in the Prophets (SC OT)

This course provides a broad, advanced introduction to Hebrew Prophecy as a socio-religious phenomenon in Biblical times, as well as focusing specifically on the study of one of the major latter prophets in the Hebrew Bible. An overview of the former prophets will also be offered. The course will normally work on the basis of the Hebrew text.

P20SF09 Empire and Biblical Interpretation (SC OT/NT)

This course is a joint OT/NT specialisation course. It will explore issues that arise out the current scholarly focus on ‘empire’ as a lived reality which pervaded the world of the Scriptures.

The following specialisation courses are planned for 2017 (subject to change):

P20SF08 Apocalyptic Literature (SC OT/NT)

Apocalyptic writings and the apocalyptic mindset are an important issue in the Pacific, and indeed across the world. This course is a joint OT/NT specialisation course that aims to study this phenomenon from a scriptural perspective. It introduces students to the world of ancient Jewish and Christian apocalypticism, with a particular focus on Daniel and Revelation. It builds on the insights into interpretative and hermeneutical issues generated by the core courses. The course will study the historical setting of such works, their connections with the ancient prophetic movement and genre, the world of symbol / metaphor, intertextual relationships, and the importance of working with such texts in our context(s) today. The course will work on the basis of English translations of the Scriptures, with some reference to the original language texts.

P20SF06 Studies in the Writings (SC OT)

This course provides a broad, advanced introduction to the ‘Writings’ section of the Hebrew Bible (excluding Daniel), with a particular focus on wisdom literature. It will usually focus on two ‘books’, such as Psalms and Job, in addition to providing an advanced introduction to the rest of this, the third part of the Hebrew canon. It builds on the insights into interpretative and hermeneutical issues generated by the core courses. The course will normally work on the basis of the Hebrew text.

P20SF01 Studies in the Canonical Gospels (SC NT)

This course provides an advanced overview of the four canonical gospels, with a more detailed study of the Gospel according to John and one of the synoptic gospels. It builds on the insights into interpretative and hermeneutical issues generated by the core courses. The course will normally work on the basis of the Greek text.

Note: Biblical Studies specialisation courses are normally taught in a two-year rotation (two to four specialisation courses each year).

THEOLOGY & ETHICS

AIMS

The MTh in Theology and Ethics is designed to allow and create spaces for Pacific theologians to further reflect on and articulate the Christian faith in the different cultural and historical contexts in the region. Contextualization of theology within Oceania is a focal endeavour. The courses are used to elicit, encourage, and enhance use of local concepts to articulate the central message of Christianity. The basic framework within which the programme operates is the doctrines of creation and incarnation as well as the current world and regional ethical issues.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

P50SF03 Land and Ecotheology (SC)

The land and sea are important motifs in biblical and systematic theology but it was not until in the late twentieth century that due attention was afforded to them. Beginning from the biblical and theological perspectives this course will explore these motifs within the particular worldviews and understandings of the contexts of Oceania. More specifically, the course will explore and analyse the key theme of Oceanic land-sea-sky interconnectedness and the derivative spiritualities with the aim to developing contextual ecotheologies that promote ecological justice and ensure long-term livelihoods. This will be carried out in light of global ecological issues such as Climate Change and Sea Level Rise.

P50SF06 Political Theology (SC)

Can Christianity and politics mix? Should they be separate? The relation between politics and religion has been one of the most contentious issues in the modern and post-colonial periods. This course will survey the tradition of theological reflection on the nature of justice, politics, and the state. Students will read key texts from this tradition, including those of Augustine, Aquinas, Luther, and Barth. The key developments of Christendom, modernity, and the secularization of politics in the modern period will all be covered. The course will look into the nature of political community, sovereignty, justice, law, and democracy through biblical and theological lenses including ecclesiology, salvation, sin, love and idolatry. Students will be encouraged to reflect on the relationship of church and state in their own countries, the Pacific region, and global politics. In this task attention will be paid to the pre- and post-colonial political history of selected Pacific nations.

The following two specialisation courses are planned for 2017 (subject to change):

P50SF01 Gospel and Culture (SC)

It is well established that when the Gospel is expressed and propagated, ever since its beginning, it always has to take into account the particular cultures of the people and the social contexts in those cultures. This course will try to delve more deeply into the dynamic interaction between Gospel and cultures, and how such interaction becomes quite determining for theology. A historical survey of the interaction between gospel and cultures from the time of Jesus to the present will be carried out in an effort to place theological developments in their socio-historical contexts. Cultural change is a key component of the course and the challenge of contemporary cultures to theology will be investigated.

P50SF05 Theological Anthropology (SC)

The understanding of what it means to be a human being is a central concern of ecumenical theology and ethics. This course will begin with Christian theological understandings of what a human being is from the biblical accounts of humans made in the image of God (imago Trinitatis), to the Fall, to the incarnation of God as human in Jesus Christ, and humanity's new status as the new Adam in Christ. It will trace traditions of theological reflection on the human creature through church history up to the modern period. Throughout the course, a Christian understanding of the human will enter into dialogue with other views of human nature from disciplines such as the sciences, the arts, economics, politics, world religions, and cultures, and ideologies such as feminism, socialism, and capitalism. Students who complete the course will have surveyed this important theological topic though some of the classic doctrines of theology, such as sin, soteriology, and the Trinity. They will be able to develop their own contextual theological anthropology as a critical tool in thinking theologically about contemporary social issues in the Pacific and beyond.

Note: specialisation courses are normally taught in a two-year rotation (two each year).

P30SF03 Studies in Global Christianity (SC)

Even though Christianity is a global religion, the history of Christianity is often treated in an Eurocentric way which overlooks the contributions of Christians right from the beginning in the Near East, Africa, Asia and in later centuries in Latin America or the Pacific. Whereas in the past the later was taught under “Mission History” and the European history of Christianity under “Church History”, today they are more and more united in the one History of World Christianity. In this perspective this course introduces to the History of Christianity in India and China and shows its dialogue with the environment, culture and major changes of these two societies.

P30SF04 The Rise of Charismatic Christianity (SC)

It is a well known fact that current global Christianity is reshaped by the rise of the Pentecostalist and Charismatic movements especially in Latin America, Africa, Asia and the Pacific. But what is the secret of its success and where are its roots? How did it develop in its different manifestations and in what way is it interacting with global and local cultures. We will have a look at different historical, anthropological and theological theories about this new revival movement, which could turn out to be the most important factor within the future of Christianity.

For 2017, the following two specialisation courses are planned (subject to change):

P30SF01 Understanding Key Texts of the Reformation (SC)

We will have a look at central texts from the Reformation period which shaped history in manifold ways, such Luther's 95 Theses (1517), his tractate Freedom of a Christian (1520), Müntzer's Sermon before the Princes, Calvin's Institutes (1541), the Thirty-Nine Articles (1563) of the Church of England and others. The aim of the course is to introduce students to the art of historical interpretation of original sources (in the English version) and at the same time to understand the multiformity and pluralistic nature of the Reformation heritage.

P30SF02 Understanding Key Texts in Modern Pacific Church History (SC)

The course discusses different methods and approaches to the history of the Pacific Churches since independence by looking closer at resolutions, constitutions or crucial speeches from the region. We will make use of current trends in the debate of Pacific Studies and the development of the concept of "Oceania" (Hau'ofa). Resolutions, essays, but also poems and declarations will be analyzed in their historical contexts so that at the end of the course the student should be aware of main trends in the modern history of the Pacific Churches.

Note: specialisation courses are normally taught in a two-year rotation (two each year).

P40SF07 Ministry in a Social Context

No details available at the time of going to press.

For 2017, the following two specialisation courses are planned (subject to change):

P40SF04 Methods in Christian Education (SC)

This course examines some of the contemporary theories and methods in Christian education. The study focuses primarily on approaches to congregational learning. The primary context in which Christian education takes place is the community of faith, which is most often expressed in the local church. Current challenges to the roles and functions of Christian education in the local church will be discussed. In particular it is intended to help the students to review and renew their approach to educational ministries drawing upon insights from Christian theology. The course enables students to develop an understanding of Christian formation and become attentive to ecumenical learning using relevant methods in the context of the Pacific church.

P40SF05 Theology of Ministry (SC)

This course will explore the theoretical and practical component of the church's ministry through seminar discussion. The theological underpinnings of ministry will be examined through various readings to help students think theologically about ministry, with special attention to the interaction of ordained and lay ministry. The ongoing interaction between practical application and theology in the Pacific and ecumenical contexts will be discussed. Through various reading, reflection, and writing assignments, students will be expected to integrate their own experiences and perspectives with those of the authors of assigned texts and of one another. Students will learn to develop competence in a variety of ministerial practices, and form their own theology of ministry as a framework which will inform their emerging praxis in the local church.

Note: specialisation courses are normally taught in a two-year rotation (two each year).

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA PROGRAMME

Purpose

The Post-Graduate Diploma in Theological Studies (PgDipl) is a postgraduate theological programme that consists of rigorous and integrated biblical, theological, pastoral/ministerial and historical studies intended to equip the student better to serve in the Pacific church context in the modern world. It provides advanced education in all theological fields to enable the student to become better equipped for a particular form of Christian ministry in the Pacific, or for the general enrichment of his/her Christian life and work. The programme leads the student into the fields of contextualisation of theological interpretation and expression of the Christian faith.

Objectives

On completion of the Post-Graduate Diploma, candidates should be able to:

- Critically analyse data and interpret it appropriately.
- Contextualise theology and faith expressions in their own cultural context.
- Engage in their ministry with a more solid foundation in theological studies.

General Admission Requirements

Applicants to the PgDipl programme should preferably have at least two years of experience in some form of full-time Christian ministry after completing their BD or other university degree(s). Church-sponsored applicants require endorsement by the head of a recognised denomination and must have guaranteed financial support. Private students may be admitted, provided they fulfil the appropriate entrance criteria. Priority will be given to church-sponsored students.

Definitions

Church-sponsored student: one who has been endorsed, sent and sponsored by a church. Privately-funded student: one who has not been endorsed or sent by a church. Residential student: one who lives on the PTC campus.

Part-time student: one who takes no more than four courses per semester.

Academic Admission Requirements

In addition to the general admission requirements, applicants also need to fulfil the following academic requirements. The applicant:

1. should have graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Theology (3 years full-time equivalent) not more than 10 years before applying for the PgDipl programme, unless the applicant has taught in an academic institution since gaining the Bachelor degree.
2. shall write an academic paper on a topic set by the relevant department of the College to test their general theological knowledge. This paper shall accompany the completed application form. Applicants should gain at least a 50% pass grade for this paper.
3. must demonstrate an appropriate standard of English comprehension through an English proficiency assessment administered by the Admission Committee, and gain at least a 50% pass grade, or a pass grade of 5.5 in an IELTS (Academic) test; and
4. who wishes to specialise in either Old Testament or New Testament Studies must demonstrate at least a basic proficiency in Hebrew or Greek respectively (applicants who fail this test will be required to take and pass introductory classes in either Hebrew (1&2) or Greek (1&2) at BD level).

Application forms are available from the Registrar's office. Applications for full-time study should normally be received by October 15, especially if applicants wish to reside on campus.

Transfer to the MTh programme

A student in the PgDipl programme who achieves at the end of Year 1 a B-average or above in his/her coursework in all credit-bearing courses may request in writing to the Academic Dean to transfer to the MTh programme.

Requirements for Graduation

The PgDipl will be conferred on candidates who have:

- successfully completed no fewer than twelve (12) credit-bearing courses, including the ten (10) specified core course from across the disciplines, as well as two further specialisation courses;

- for residential students, satisfactorily participated in the spiritual and community life of the College;
- cleared all outstanding debts to the College.

The Post-graduate Diploma with Distinction will be awarded to candidates who have, in addition to the above, successfully completed the course work with an average of no less than A-.

Cross Crediting

MTh and PgDipl level courses completed in other theological institutions or universities may be considered for cross-crediting by the Academic Advisory Committee, with the final approval of the teaching faculty. Only courses successfully completed in the ten years prior to the application will be considered for cross-crediting. No more than 50% of the coursework for the PgDipl programme may be credited in this way.

Programme

When taken as a full-time programme, the PgDipl takes one year to complete. The programme involves coursework only. All PgDipl students, regardless of specialisation, take the same number of courses overall, and take certain core courses from all theological disciplines. However, students may specialize in concentrating on a particular discipline in some of the coursework.

Two core courses each are taken from the fields of general academic skills, church history, ministry, as well as theology and ethics.

Full-time and part-time studies

Full-time students are normally expected to complete the PgDipl programme in one year. A full time student who has not completed his/her coursework during that year is expected to complete it within one further year. She/he, however, must request in writing to the Department concerned for the extension period needed. The Head of the Department will consult with the Academic Dean and the Principal before a recommendation is made to the Faculty for endorsement of whatever decision they have made. The course work must be completed within the maximum extension period. Part-time students are expected to complete the Post-graduate Diploma degree in not more than three (3) years.

Remedial Work

A student in the PgDipl programme may be required to do remedial course work if his/her background in the area of specialisation is considered not adequate. Practical library skills training and computer literacy training is also available and may be required of individual students, over and above the general Academic Skills and Research Skills courses.

Research Seminars

During the course of their studies, PgDipl students will actively participate in the relevant Postgraduate Departmental Seminars as well as the Common Thesis Seminars.

COURSE PROGRAMME

The PgDipl coursework programme is the same as that of the MTh programme in Year 1. Students will normally take the following courses:

Semester 1A	Semester 1B	Semester 2B	Semester 2B
AS Core 1	CH Core 1	CH Core 2	SC 1 BS, TE, CH, CM
CM Core 1	CM Core 2	AS Core 2	SC 2 BS, TE, CH, CM

Two further specialisation courses are taken in the specific field students wish to specialise in.

For all course titles and descriptions, see the MTh programme.

Forms of the Degree: BD and BD(Hons)

The degree exists in two forms: Bachelor of Divinity (BD) and Bachelor of Divinity with Honours: BD (Hons).

Candidates may study part-time or full-time. The BD is available in three different modes: face-to-face, by extension, or a mixture of the two. The BD (Hons) component is available only in face-to-face mode.

Requirements for Graduation

Students will be expected to complete the BD or BD (Hons) programme in no more than eight years.

The BD degree will be conferred on candidates who have:

1. Passed no fewer than 28 credit-bearing courses*, including all the required courses, with an average grade not lower than C; and

*A credit-bearing course requires 100 notional learning hours. Learning hours are the total number of hours the student is expected to work for a course, including contact time (lectures), reading, assignments, examinations, etc.

The BD and BD (Hons) degrees will be granted in the following categories:

1st class (A-/A/A+ average);

2nd class (B-/B/B+ average);

3rd class (C/C+ average).

The grade average will be calculated on the basis of all 28 or 36 required courses taken for a programme.

Bachelor of Divinity

Completion of the BD does not qualify a student to proceed to post-graduate programmes at PTC. A student who wishes to proceed to post-graduate studies must complete the additional requirements for the BD (Hons), which are available in face-to-face mode only.

Bachelor of Divinity (Honours)

The BD (Hons) is the standard degree programme for students sponsored by churches in the region. Only the honours degree will enable a student to apply for postgraduate studies at PTC.

The BD (Hons) thesis is the equivalent of three credit-bearing courses. The length of the thesis is about 10,000 words. Please refer to the general academic regulations for details.

Time Frame

Students will be expected to complete the BD or BD (Hons) programme in no more than eight years.

The BD is run on a three-year cycle, and it is highly desirable that residential students enter the programme at the beginning of 2015, 2018, etc. However, students may enter the residential programme at the beginning of any other semester, provided that their application has been approved and accommodation is available. Students who do not enter at the beginning of the cycle should be aware that this may require them to take up to half of their courses in distance mode.

Extension students may enter the programme and begin studying at any time, once their application has been approved and they have registered and paid for their first course. Extension courses are to be completed in 12 weeks, though a grace period of up to three (3) extra weeks may be granted.

Alternative Delivery

The College may deliver certain BD courses in an intensive format, involving a five-day workshop, followed by further reading and assessment.

NOTES [Cont'd]

- A student who wishes to take courses in addition to those offered in a particular half-semester (an 'overload') may be permitted to do so only with the approval of the departments concerned and the Academic Dean.
- Individual departments may offer extra courses either to replace a required course or add optional electives.
- Applicants with no previous theological training will be required successfully to complete the course B20ND00 Introduction to the Bible by extension at the beginning of their study programme—either concurrently with, or after completing, B10FF01 Academic Skills 1.

The required language courses for the BD (Hons) are available in two options: Biblical Hebrew and Hellenistic Greek. They will be offered in Year 1 of the rolling cycle, but may also be available in Years 2 and 3 of the cycle (see shaded areas in the tables above), at the discretion of the Department concerned.

Biblical Languages

Reading groups: Students who successfully complete Hellenistic Greek 2 or Biblical Hebrew 2 are normally required to participate satisfactorily in a 1-hour/week reading class in Greek or Hebrew for the rest of their degree programme. Honours students who fail the language courses may be offered the option of taking alternative non-language courses to be determined on a case-by-case basis, but only on the recommendation of the Biblical Studies department and the Dean, with Faculty approval. BD students who wish to study Greek or Hebrew may register for these courses. There is no fee for these Reading Groups.

Reading groups will only be available if the staffing situation in a given year allows the Department of Biblical Studies to offer them.

Challenge Examinations

Students who believe that they have already mastered the material covered by a specific course may request the Head of the relevant Department to set an examination for them. A student who passes such a challenge exam will not be required to take the related course and will be given credit toward graduation requirements. The decision about which, if any, courses will be open to challenge by examination is made by the departments in consultation with the Principal. For residential students, the examinations will be taken at PTC during orientation week or the week preceeding the period in which the course in question is offered.

Cross-crediting

Students may apply for credit for degree-level courses completed at other colleges accredited by SPATS or MATS or from an equivalent institution. Not more than 50% of the number of courses needed to complete a PTC degree can be credited in this way. Any exemption may depend on successful completion of an equivalency test. Only courses successfully completed in the 10 years prior to application will be considered for cross-crediting.

Communication and Study Skills

The BD and BD (Hons) programmes include two required academic skills courses. In addition, each course at PTC includes direct and indirect ways of developing the arts and skills of thinking, reading and communicating appropriately in the subject or discipline. The help of advisers and members of staff with special skills in the area should always be sought. In addition the College provides special training in English and computer literacy.

Part-time Study

Part-time study at PTC is open to any person who is genuinely interested and has sufficient educational background to master the course-work at degree level. For admission, see the requirements for this degree. A part-time student is one who takes not more than four credit-bearing courses per semester. Students taking four or more courses per semester are classified as full-time. Part-time students may choose from the regularly scheduled classes or extension courses set out in the Handbook. They are normally required to take Academic Skills 1 and Academic Skills 2 in their first semester of study, unless granted an exemption. Course choices should be discussed with the Registrar or Academic Dean before registration. Thereafter, they should consult their appointed academic advisor prior to any course registration.

Courses Not for Degree Purposes

Persons wishing to take individual courses for their personal interest—for credit, but not towards a degree—may register for any BD or BD (Hons) course, provided that they have met the admission requirements, have enrolled, and paid the necessary course fee.

Classes may also be audited. It is not necessary to enrol in the BD programme in order to audit a course, but course registration is required. ‘Auditing’ means that students do not complete assessment tasks and will not gain any credit.

Academic Prizes

Please note that prizes (including their names), conditions for their award, etc. are currently under review, and may change by November 2016.

Only graduating students will be considered for academic prizes. Individual prizes may not necessarily be awarded every year. No prize will be awarded unless the cumulative grade average over the relevant courses is 80/A- or above.

The Bible Society Prize in Biblical Languages may be awarded to a student who has completed two courses in either Greek or Hebrew with a combined average of 80/A- or above.

The Bible Society Prize in New Testament Studies may be awarded to a student who has completed at least three courses in which New Testament

Studies (not including Greek) forms at least 50% of the course curriculum, with an average of 80/A- or above.

The George Knight Prize in Old Testament Studies may be awarded to a student who has completed at least three courses in which Old Testament Studies (not including Hebrew) forms at least 50% of the course curriculum, with an average of 80/A- or above.

See the table above above for an overview. Please note that the programme below is under review and may change.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

B20BF01 Introduction to the Study of Torah

This course provides a brief overview of the first five books of the Old Testament, generally known as Torah, or Pentateuch. The course will also include a more detailed study of one or two of these books (e.g., Genesis and Deuteronomy). Exegetical techniques acquired in the 'Introduction to Exegesis' course will be deepened. Foundational hermeneutical and theological aspects are a permeation feature: that is, the course will address the issue of how and why biblical texts may be appropriated in contemporary life. The course will normally work on the basis of English translations.

B20BF02 Introduction to the Study of the Synoptic Gospels and Acts

This course is an introduction to the study of the canonical gospels and the Acts of the Apostles. Following a general introduction to the study of the gospels (including the gospel genre), the focus will be on Luke-Acts, though the course will usually not cover the passion narrative. General issues of gospel research, such as parables, will also be discussed. The course combines detailed exegetical work of selected passages with important themes in Luke-Acts. Source and redaction criticisms will be introduced in more detail to complement the introductory exegesis course. As with all Biblical Studies course, foundational hermeneutical and theological components are a permeation feature; that is, each course will address the issue of how and why biblical texts may be appropriated in contemporary life. The course will normally work on the basis of the English text.

B20BF04 Introduction to the Study of the Letters attributed to Paul

This course offers an introduction to the letters traditionally attributed to Paul, including the deuterio-pauline and the pastoral epistles. The course will first present an introduction to the life and letters of Paul. Using and strengthening the skills acquired in the foundation course in exegesis, the course concentrates on two of the major letters (usually 1 Corinthians and Galatians), and the pastoral epistles. As with all Biblical Studies course, foundational hermeneutical and theological components are a permeation feature; that is, each course will address the issue of how and why biblical texts may be appropriated in contemporary life. The course will normally work on the basis of the English text.

B30BF02 Medieval and Reformation Church History

This course introduces students to Christian thought and practice from the early Middle Ages through the Reformation of the sixteenth century. Topics include: the mission to Europe; the rise of monasticism; the schism between Eastern and Western churches; the crusades, and the impact of Islam; Scholasticism; Renaissance and Humanism; the reasons for the Reformation and a closer look at the great reformers (Martin Luther, John Calvin and Huldrych Zwingli), the Anglican and the Radical Reformation, but also the Catholic Counter-Reformation. The course includes a constant assessment of the Reformation heritage for today's Christianity in the Pacific.

B30BF03 Modern Church History

With the invention of the steam engine and early industrialization a revolution began also within Church and Theology. This course will introduce students to the Theology of Enlightenment and Rationalism, Pietism and Awakening; modern Theology of the 19th century (Schleiermacher) and the counterattack in the early 20th century (Barth). The influence of colonialism and imperialism on Christian mission will be analyzed and also the conflict between church and state in Germany (1930s) and Fiji (1987). The course will include an assessment of the impact of Christianity on India and China and end with a discussion of the gravitational shift within Christianity from the North to the South and what this means for the current transformations of the ecumenical movement.

B40BF02 Worship and Liturgy

This course is devoted mostly to an exploration of the traditions and theology of Christian worship and the issues this has raised, which continue to affect worship within the contemporary context. Through readings and study, students will look at questions of culture and language, ecumenical perspectives, worship and the senses, liturgy and Christian initiation, daily public prayer and the service of the word, liturgies of the eucharist, liturgies commissioning ministry, and pastoral liturgies – marriage, broken relationships, sickness and death. The first phase of the course focuses on the history of Christian worship. It asks what worship is and how worship practices have taken shape among Christians across the centuries and across the world. The second phase will focus upon worship within the contemporary context and the social-pastoral issues that are raised both by contemporary worship and the study of liturgies within this context. Finally, students will put this knowledge to work in appreciating actual worship services in the Pacific context.

B40BF04 Theology and Meaning of Mission in the Pacific Today

Course description not yet available.

B50BF01 Christologies

“Who is Jesus Christ? What is the significance of Jesus Christ today?” These are the central questions that will form the substance of this course. The course aims to deepen the students’ experience of Christ by developing a broader vision and more profound understanding of who Jesus is and what his significance is today. To work toward this the course will focus on the following: earliest Christian portrayals of Jesus in the Gospels and in Paul’s writings; classical Creeds of the Christian Church; the historical reconstructions of the Jesus Seminar; and contemporary existential responses and contextual expressions of Jesus Christ, with specific reference to feminist and Oceanic Christologies. Students will be encouraged to reflect on the central questions above in the light of the foregoing foci and of their own religious-cultural and socio-economic contexts.

B50BF02 Triune God

This course looks to combine both theory and praxis of the doctrine of God. In the first place it attempts to familiarize students with the content and expressions of the unique Christian doctrine in the various stages of theological development both in the East and the West, as well as with the ecumenical councils. In the second place, the main focus of the course will be on the place and significance of such (Triune) theology in the social, economic and political contexts, or public life, of Oceania today. Examples of current social, economic and political issues will be provided and the question ‘where is the triune God in all this?’ will be critically and constructively addressed. This second component of the course is to enable students to ‘ground’ or ‘earth’ their knowledge and understanding of God in concrete and tangible realities that their churches and communities encounter today.

B50HF02 Ecological Ethics and Social Justice

This course provides an overview of both ecological ethics and social justice. Key questions to be explored include: What is ecological ethics? Why ecological ethics? What is social justice? Why social justice? The issue of value is central for both ecological ethics and social justice – the value of the non-human beings (or nature/environment) which is crucial to ecological ethics, and the value human beings which is crucial to social justice. The aspect that is common to both areas is justice and so focus will be on justice for both the environment (environmental justice) and human beings (social justice). The interconnectedness of the two areas – ecological ethics and social justice – will be highlighted by using the theme of violence; violence that human beings inflict upon nature and violence that human beings inflict upon other fellow human beings. To live justly with nature and to live justly with fellow human beings is the vision encouraged and advanced in this course.

B60BF01 Gender & Ministry in Church & Society in the Pacific Context

This inter-disciplinary course in church history and church ministry aims at engaging students to review their traditional and changing roles as men and women in the Pacific today, especially in relation to leadership and partnership in church and society. The course will explore the foundations for roles of men and men biblically, historically in the early Christian church, and sociologically in the Pacific context of church ministry. The course will examine the ways that men and women are impacted by gender inequality and address issues that they face in various areas of ministry responsibilities as partners in ministry. Special attention will be given to women who have been historically impacted by social structures within the church and society and processes of ministry. The focus on women as partners in leadership and ministry will enable students to examine how status and duties of women have changed historically in the church and society of the Pacific. This examination will enable students to see how both men and women can impact the future of leadership and partnership in ministry.

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATE, DIPLOMA & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Purpose

The Undergraduate Certificate, Diploma and Professional Development programme at PTC began in 2012, building on years of experience in delivering intensive workshops on various aspects of community work that for members of churches and NGOs in the region. The aim is to use the expertise of both PTC and outside staff to help facilitate capacity building. Our unique contribution in this field is the integration of faith-based foundations with theoretical and practical training. The first phase of this project (2012-2014) was designed to deliver training in the following four areas: Peacebuilding; Social Analysis; Leadership & Management; and Pastoral Counselling (Foundational and Advanced).

Funding for the second phase of this programme was not yet certain by the end of 2015; therefore, further courses may or may not be offered in 2016. Please contact the Institute for Research and Social Analysis or God's Pacific People Programme for details.

Common Delivery

The face-to-face element of all courses is delivered in the form of intensive workshops of five days' duration, either at the Jovili Meo Mission Centre on the campus of PTC, or at another suitable venue in the region.

Professional Development: Certificate of Attendance

Interested church members and NGO personnel, regardless of their academic status, are welcome to apply to attend the workshops facilitated by this programme. A Certificate of Attendance may be issued at the end of each workshop. No credit towards an academic award will be given for such attendance, but many participants have found attending workshops a tremendous help in enhancing their work.

Undergraduate Certificates & Diplomas

The Undergraduate Certificate is an award at the academic skill level of Bachelor degree studies. Therefore the academic admission criteria are normally the same as those for the BD programme. The award is available in all four of the subject areas indicated above, and in each case involves four courses involving 100 learning hours each. Of these, 40 hours are covered by classes in the five-day workshop; the rest is made up of further specified reading and assignments. The Certificates and Diploma in Pastoral Counselling have a slightly different structure.

The course programme for each of the awards is as follows:

Course	UgCert in Peacebuilding	UgCert in Leadership & Management	UgCert in Social Analysis
1	Conflict Analysis	Leadership & Management I	Social Analysis I
2	Trauma Healing Awareness	Leadership & Management II	Social Analysis II
3	Conflict Transformation	Leadership & Management III	Social Analysis III
4	Elective course	Elective course	Elective course

Course	UgCert in Counselling (Foundational)	UgCert in Counselling (Advanced)
1	Foundational Counselling I	Advanced Counselling I
2	Foundational Counselling II	Advanced Counselling II
3	Foundational Counselling III	Advanced Counselling III
4	Foundational Counselling IV	Advanced Counselling IV
5	---	Practicum A

Students who have completed both the UgCert in Counselling (Foundational) and the UgCert in Counselling (Advanced) may enrol in the Undergraduate Diploma in Counselling, which builds on these two Certificates.

Course	Diploma in Counselling
1	Diploma Course I
2	Diploma Course II
3	Practicum B
4	Practicum C & Mentoring

The Diploma in Counselling (including the two Certificates) requires 1210 learning hours in total.

Foundation courses in the BD programme may be taken as electives, whether residentially or by extension (see details in the BD section of this handbook). Also, an introductory course from another UgCert programme may be used as an elective. Further electives may be offered from time to time (e.g. Community Bible Study for Social Transformation).

Credit Transfer between UgCert and BD Programmes

All UgCert courses are designed at degree-level. Therefore, credit transfer to the BD/BD(Hons) programme is possible, at the discretion of the Academic Dean and the Faculty. Furthermore, one (1) 100 learning hour course in the BD programme and one (1) course in one of the UgCert programmes may be credited towards both awards (double credit). This is possible for one UgCert only; that is, a student who wishes to complete more than one UgCert can do this only once, for one UgCert.

Cost

The cost of each workshop, regardless of whether it is taken for professional development or for the academic award of the Undergraduate Certificate, is currently usually F$300 for each five-day workshop. This is a highly subsidised fee, and only possible because of very generous assistance from partner organizations. Further financial assistance may be available upon application.

Further Details

To find out more about this programme including exact course dates, please contact either the Director of GPP (for Peacebuilding and Pastoral Counselling), or the Director of IRSA (for Social Analysis and Leadership & Management). Contact details are on the inside cover of this handbook.

PACIFIC THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

EDUCATION BY EXTENSION

Introduction

PTCEE's vision is 'Theology for All for Life'. Through distance learning we offer accessible, affordable, achievable, accredited theological education.

We are ever respectful, in offering this, of the Pacific region's deeply religious nature, challenging mission history and contemporary Church life.

We are holistic in our approach, believing lifelong theological education and Christian formation are inseparable.

I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the mind also. I will sing praise with the spirit, but I will sing praise with the mind also. (1 Corinthians 14.15).

Objectives of PTCEE

PTCEE's objectives are as follows:

- To equip God's people in the Pacific for theologically informed service in their day to day lives, responsibilities and Church ministries.
- To develop Christian responses to issues affecting Pacific churches and societies; such as land, climate, politics, diversity, dispersion, globalisation and reconciliation.
- To demonstrate a working model of 'Theology for All for Life' through an enthusiastic, ecumenical body of students across the Pacific, learning in their own environments and at their own speeds.

History

The distance-learning programme of PTC began in 1989 as a partnership between PTC and the Pacific Conference of Churches (PCC). The programme was then called Education by Extension for Development and Action (EEDA). The focus was on training church leaders in Micronesia, most of whom had no formal theological training. For three years the Director of EEDA, with the help of PTC faculty members and PCC staff, implemented face-to-face training programmes in Micronesia.

In October 1993 the PCC Executive, meeting in Niue, resolved to hand over to PTC the administration of the programme. In November of the same year, the PTC council accepted the Niue resolution and renamed the programme Pacific Theological College Education by Extension (PTCEE). The Director of PTCEE and the PTCEE Advisory Committee then began to organise a curriculum and course materials for a Diploma in Theological Studies by extension. The first students in the Diploma programme registered in 1996. In 2001 the Certificate in Theological Studies award was introduced as a halfway mark towards the Diploma. By the end of 2012 nearly 700 Pacific Christians from around the Pacific had enrolled for PTCEE courses.

A new initiative in 2008 was the beginning of a Bachelor in Theology (BTh) programme by extension. In 2012 this degree was merged with the residential Bachelor of Divinity. It enables Diploma graduates around the region to further their theological education without having to leave their parishes and attend a residential college. It also provides a higher level of theological education for those who have university entrance.

Several attempts have been made over the years to provide courses in French for Francophone Christians in the Pacific—unfortunately with little success.

Why Have Extension Courses?

‘Ministry’ does not necessarily mean ordained ministry. There are, as Paul reminds us, a variety of gifts (1 Cor 12:12–26). Theological Education by Extension (TEE) developed out of the need to provide theological education in a way that suits students and equips them for Christian ministry while allowing them to remain in their local communities.

PTCEE’s extension programmes are intended to fill a gap in theological education in Oceania. Most areas in the Pacific have theological colleges, but full-time study at a residential theological institution is impossible for most Pacific Christians. Many are unable to leave their homes or pay for residential studies. Furthermore, many local theological colleges are dedicated to training people for ordination and they do not admit lay people, even though lay people may be responsible for much of the ministry within and beyond their churches.

The deeply religious nature of Pacific people and their hunger to experience the abundance of the Christian life makes it imperative for PTC to provide accessible theological education.

Many people in the region live on isolated islands separated by vast expanses of ocean. PTCEE programmes are print-based, so they make theological study accessible to church people throughout the region. Students can choose a programme that best suits their needs. The courses are written mostly by people in the Pacific to be appropriate for Pacific people. They are applied, contextual and ecumenical.

Open and Flexible Learning

PTCEE Certificate and Diploma programmes have open entry: almost anyone can study theology through PTCEE. It is easier for students if they have completed at least two years of secondary school, but we also accept applicants who have other training or experience. We try our best to help any Christian who wants to learn more about their Christian faith and discipleship.

PTCEE programmes are flexible: students can enrol and begin study at any time of the year. They choose which course they want to do first and they work at their own speed. It is possible for students to complete the Certificate in two years and the rest of the Diploma in another two years, but usually they take longer.

Weekly tutorials in academic skills are available for students living in Suva.

Academic Programmes Offered via PTCEE

1. INDIVIDUAL COURSES

Students may enrol in one or more courses, without intending to complete the Certificate or Diploma. For example, pastors, priests and members of religious orders may simply wish to take a 'refresher course'. Others may be interested in a particular subject area. Students choose the course or courses that will be most useful or interesting to them.

Churches may encourage their lay church leaders to do certain courses to equip themselves for their specific ministry within the church.

2. CERTIFICATE IN THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

The Certificate is a programme of studies designed for those who want a basic appreciation and understanding of the core theological disciplines of Biblical Studies, Theology, Church History and Ministry. To gain the Certificate, students must complete eight (8) required courses and one (1) elective. The required courses are:

C20RD01 = B101A	Introduction to the Study of the Bible, Part 1
C20RD02 = B101B	Introduction to the Study of the Bible, Part 2

C40RD02 = M103	Introduction to Christian Education
C50RD01 = TE101	Foundations of Theology
C50RD02 = TE102	Foundations of Ethics

Although it is a qualification in its own right, the PTCEE Certificate can also be seen as a halfway stage towards the Diploma. Students who complete the Certificate are encouraged to continue their studies. The courses passed for the Certificate are fully credited towards the Diploma.

3. DIPLOMA IN THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

The Diploma offers further training for lay people who are active in their churches and wish to be more theologically educated and better equipped for their ministries. It equips them for their leadership roles in the church. The Diploma may also be a prerequisite for entering degree-level studies.

The Diploma requires a total of 19 courses. Certificate graduates must complete a further eight (8) required courses as well as one or two (1 or 2) elective courses (chosen by the student).

D50ED01 = TE201	Women and Theology

4. BACHELOR OF DIVINITY

The BD is aimed at achieving academic theological knowledge and developing critical and competent theological thinking. The BD programme by extension specifically addresses the needs of those who would like to undertake or further their theological studies, but are unable to attend a residential programme, for example:

- Lay people who are interested in theological studies;
- Clergy who wish to study further.

The Bachelor of Divinity requires a total of 28 courses. Each course requires 100 learning hours, and must be completed within a given time frame. However, extension students may apply and enter the programme at any time during the year.

BD Courses currently being developed for delivery by extension

The sequence in which courses are taken is optional, apart from the need to take Foundation courses first (indicated with an asterisk, *, in the list below). See the BD programme section above for further details. Please note that some courses are still being written, and some course titles may still change.

Enrolment and Fees

People interested in studying the Certificate or Diploma can apply by sending in a completed Application for Admission Form, available from the PTCEE office, by mail, fax or email. It can also be downloaded from the PTC website. When students have been approved, they pay for their first course and start studying. Most students pay for one course at a time, not for the whole Certificate or Diploma programme. The normal fee is FJ$150 per course, but we charge only $120 if we do not have to post the materials, and $100 (subsidised rate) for students in PNG, the Solomons or Vanuatu. The course fee must be paid before course materials are sent.

Those interested in doing the Bachelor of Divinity should contact the Registrar (for application forms) and the Academic Dean (for advice). Once approved, BD students register and pay for their courses through the Registrar. Each BD course costs FJ$520 by extension, or FJ$720 if students are able to join a class on our campus in Suva.

All course materials are sent by airmail from Fiji, although national postal services use a variety of means, some of which are very slow. A course book guides the students through their studies. A text book or a book of readings is supplied as a normal part of most courses, at no extra cost. Students are also provided with exercise books for their written work and envelopes for returning their completed assignments to PTCEE to be graded. Electronic submission of assignments is welcome.

The course focuses specifically on helping you design strategies for pastoral action in Pacific Island social contexts.

After focusing on the biblical creation stories it explores the relationship between science and theology.

TE104 Making Ethical Decisions

This course will lead you to a deeper understanding of what is involved in the important decisions we make in life. It is a course about ‘doing’ and ‘living’ ethics. It leads you to a broader awareness of how Christians can be disciples of Christ in a complex and rapidly changing world. Making Ethical Decisions focuses on the choices Christians have to make as they deal with issues facing the Pacific today. You will be challenged to reflect on your views about making responsible choices about things that are important to human societies and to God.

TE201 Women and theology

Pacific Christians of the 21st century are a long way from the world of ancient Pacific Islanders. We are also far from the first Christians and the writers of the scriptures. In the journey from then to now something important has been lost. In Women and Theology we will explore the forgotten female dimension of the Christian experience of God and faith. Some women of faith who have recently been writing about their own journeys of faith will help us to return to our Christian origins to recover inclusive visions of God, the Church and Christian ministry.

GOD'S PACIFIC PEOPLE PROGRAMME

The God's Pacific People (GPP) programme is an initiative of the Pacific Churches concerning their mission in the changing Pacific today. The Pacific Theological College embraced it because of its missiological focus and interest, recognizing the academic and practical sides of theological education form an integrated unity. GPP works closely with PCC and SPATS in facilitating joint initiatives to address issues currently challenging our churches and their communities. In recent years these have included the 2010 Viwa Mission Conference, the 2011 Hermeneutics Consultation Lautoka, and current project work on addressing violence against women.

The work of GPP makes a contribution to the academic life of the college by providing to our degree students access to specialist courses relating to the exercise of mission in today's context.

GPP's vision is to work together as a sharing community in three frontiers.

1. The need to be engaged with each other across the Pacific in cross-cultural mission on issues that affect or challenge Pacific societies today.
2. To respond to the need of renewal of our own communities and see the challenge as part of our mutual mission.
3. To see as the frontier of our mission today social issues, development and justice concerns.

To meet this vision GPP carries out the following programmes as mandated in 1999 by the Pacific Churches:

I. Personnel Exchange Programme

This programme enables the sharing of skills and expertise for mission among the Pacific Churches to meet identified developmental requirements with in the Pacific Churches, through church / church and NGO / Church personnel sharing. These can be in the forms of:

- Learning attachments (3 or 6 months)
- Sending of resource personnel (3 or 6 months)
- Flexi-learning packages; enabling funding for 2-3 short term trainings for a sending organisation over a 12 month period.
- Consultancies; 3 x 2-3 week consultancies by skilled trainers over a 12 month period.

This programme has operated since 2004 and facilitated exchanges in the areas of organisation strengthening, livelihood development and programmatic responses to critical community and social development issues.

II. Capacity Building Training

These training programmes are offered in response to needs identified by Pacific churches.

- Capacity Building for Social Transformation Courses; training intensives offered by GPP include Peacebuilding and Pastoral Counselling. For details, see the Undergraduate Certificate & Professional Development section in this Handbook.
- English Language for Ecumenical Engagement; designed for non-English speaking Pacific churches and their communities.
- Some courses are also run in response to specific requests by the churches for training in their home countries; this may also be done in partnership with IRSA and local churches.

III. Inspirational Story Project

This project aims to collect and publish stories of Pacific people who through their mission have made a difference to their communities. This serves to share the Pacific Churches' experiences of mission and therefore enabling us to both support and encourage each other in the critical mission contexts now facing our Pacific communities.

IV. Face to Face Programme

GPP hosts this programme on behalf of the Council for World Mission (CWM). This is an international seven week cross-cultural exposure programme on mission in the context of globalisation for ordinands of the CWM churches. The programme aims to stimulate theological reflection, encourage sensitivity to people of other cultures, motivate people to involvement in mission and develop a critical approach to mission amid the challenges of modern day empire. The Fiji programme is designed to highlight the challenges for mission posed in the current Pacific context.

INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH & SOCIAL ANALYSIS

BACKGROUND

The Institute for Research and Social Analysis (IRSA) was established in April 2008. As an integral part of PTC, the Institute undertakes and facilitates research needs of the Pacific churches, Pacific communities and the College in order to contribute to a well-informed dynamic Christian presence in the Pacific Islands. Any activities of the Institute will

- be driven by the context in which the churches are embedded;
- investigate and address issues of concern for the Pacific churches and communities; and
- explore the biblical, theological, ethical and social foundations of pertinent issues and concerns.

PEOPLE

The Institute is directed by Prof. Manfred Ernst, who is supported by Programme Assistant Raijeli Uluinaceva, part-time Project Development Officer Raki Tigarea, part-time Finance Officer Rima Sivanjali, and a Strategic Think Tank of five Fiji-based co-opted members that represent a variety of denominations, institutions and relevant professional backgrounds:

- Aisake Casimira (Pacific Conference of Churches)
- Dr. Sandra Tarte (Director, Politics and International Affairs Programme, University of the South Pacific)
- Tessa McKenzie (Interfaith Fiji, IRSA chairperson)
- Rev. Dr. Cliff Bird (Regional Director, Uniting World Pacific)
- Chantelle Khan (Director Social Economic Empowerment Programme)
- Rev. James Bhagwan (Methodist Church Fiji & Rotuma)

MAIN PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES

I. CAPACITY BUILDING FOR SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION (CBST)

Since 2012, IRSA has trained about 300 people from the region in the areas of Leadership and Management, as well as Social Analysis. There is an increasing need for ministers, church personnel and civil society organisations to develop their capacity to analyse critical social developments within their societies and churches, and to develop solutions to a range of social problems that are part and parcel of the socio-economic context of their work. Increasingly, the work of a typical minister or priest requires more and more skills in the area of social analysis, administration, management and communication, and peace building. Church leaders are frequently dealing with hundreds of people, volunteers, employees, church groups and last but not least substantial amounts of money. In the past, neither the local theological colleges nor the established regional ecumenical institutions have developed adequate training programmes in church administration, finance management or communication – to name a few crucial areas — as they still follow a basically traditional theological curriculum.

The programme has allowed GPP and IRSA to continue training that addresses skills gaps in vital fields of socially relevant mission. It has been designed to draw on a range of expertise available at PTC, thus helping PTC to expand and address potential students that would not normally come to the College. We aim to continue to offer training for church/NGO personnel who will not have the time, inclination, or academic predisposition to undertake this kind of work in a formal, structured, academic sense, while also catering for the demand for formal academic certification for others. The kind of capacity building in development-oriented fields that we practise integrates the social, cultural and religious context of the South Pacific. It recognises the importance of the churches in the context of development, but also of NGOs in the context of the ministry in the church, thus combining expertise in both the churches and the broader community.

In principle, the programme developed here can be offered locally or regionally, that is, in Suva and elsewhere. The pilot project was delivered in regional workshops held at PTC in Suva, Fiji. For 2015 and beyond we are now also considering delivery of workshops locally at the request of churches or organizations.

II. RE-THINKING DEMOCRACY NETWORK (RDN)

IRSA is a foundation member of the Re-thinking Democracy Network in Fiji, which was established by 50 participants from 13 Civil Society organizations and 9 churches in July 2014. Together with representatives from four other non-governmental organizations in Fiji, the IRSA Director is a member of the steering committee for the coordination and planning of activities of the network. The RDN is independent, non-partisan and, guided by an agreed set of values for collaboration, will strive towards rethinking the concept and practice of democracy in Fiji through contribution to deepening people's understanding and participation in democratic reform through action learning and communication.

III. RESEARCH

In 2013, IRSA was authorised by the PTC Council and the General Assembly of PCC to undertake a regional research project under the title Strengthening Ecumenical Relations in Oceania. This project is designed to run from February 2014 until July 2016. This is a major research project which involves multiple researchers under the leadership of the Director of IRSA. The project examines the current reality of ecumenism in Oceania and provide impulses for the renewal and strengthening of ecumenical cooperation concerning (a) matters of church life and unity, and (b) socio-cultural, political, economic, ecological and gender issues.

Women's Fellowship Development Programme

The PTC Council is committed to the theological education of women and as such all women including those who come to the College with their husbands are encouraged to participate fully in the life of the college and make use of all the educational opportunities available through the College including academic studies through PTCEE and the residential degree Programmes. Studies specifically designed for women were introduced at the College in 1980. We aim to offer an integrated programme of studies for women to complement other existing educational opportunities at the College.

The College provides a nursery and pre-school at the 'Etina Havea Centre to allow both parents to take up studies.

Purpose

The Women's Fellowship Development Programme (WFDP) aims to equip women for the different ministry challenges they will encounter as leaders in their churches and home communities. It can be taken together with PTCEE studies and therefore does not seek to replicate but rather complement PTCEE studies.

What is offered is an integrated programme with four main streams:

- Spiritual Formation; to develop practical leadership in worship & teaching;
- Practical Arts; for church, community & income generating purposes;
- Capacity Building; to develop essential technical skills for ministry purposes;

- Skills for Mission; to develop skills for ecumenical ministry in church & society.

Two award programmes are available within the programme: the Certificate in Women's Ministry Studies (CWMS), and the Certificate in Women's Ministry Studies and Theology (CWMST). Both are designed to integrate the four streams of study mentioned above, and both are delivered in such a way that the award may be achieved within two years of study.

WFDP courses are offered in a two-year rolling cycle. However, the course on 'Communication Skills' is offered every year in semester-half 1A (for new students), together with a parallel course in 'Practical Arts' (for continuing students). Course offerings may be subject to change. All courses for the WFDP, unless otherwise noted, count as 50-learning-hour courses.

Year A (2015, 2017, 2019, etc.)

1A	W10RF01	Communication Skills: Computer Skills and English Skills*
1A	W60RF01	Practical Arts
1B	W40RF01	Counselling 1
2A	W40RF02	Counselling 2
2B	W40RF03	Ministry to Youth and Children

Year B (2016, 2018, 2020, etc.)

1A	W10RF01	Communication Skills: Computer Skills and English Skills*
1A	W60RF01	Practical Arts
1B	W20RF01	Creative Bible Study
2A	W20RF02	Leadership: Foundations in the Scriptures
2B	W40RF04	Ministry and Leadership

* The 'Communication Skills' course may be 'challenged' by means of an exam to demonstrate that the student has already acquired the skills taught in this course.

Certificate in Women's Ministry Studies

Requirements for the CWMS award: eight (8) WFDP courses outlined below (one per semester-half).

The course programme for 2016 is structured as follows.

New Students (2016)

- 1A W10RF01 Communication Skills: Computer Skills and English Skills*
- 1B W20RF01 Creative Bible Study
- 2A W20RF02 Leadership: Foundations in the Scriptures
- 2B W40RF04 Ministry and Leadership

Continuing Students (2016)

- 1A W60RF01 Practical Arts
- 1B W20RF01 Creative Bible Study
- 2A W20RF02 Leadership: Foundations in the Scriptures
- 2B W40RF04 Ministry and Leadership

Certificate in Women's Ministry Studies and Theology

The CWMST award programme is designed as an alternative to the Certificate in Women's Ministry Studies; it cannot be taken in addition to it.

The CWMST involves the same eight WP courses as the CWMS. In addition, students must complete two further PTCEE courses (100 learning hours each; one course per year): TE101: Theology (Year A), and TE102: Ethics (Year B). Each of these PTCEE courses will be accompanied by a two-hour tutorial once a week. The tutorial is optional in the sense that students are not obliged to participate: however, any student who decides to participate must attend classes regularly.

WFDP Certificates and the PTCEE Certificate & Diploma

Students who wish to complete either of the two WFDP Certificates may cross-credit up to four (4) WFDP courses from PTCEE courses. A PTCEE course is normally worth two (2) WFDP courses (e.g. WP's "Leadership 1&2" equals PTCEE's "Leadership and Management" course). This is because WFDP courses are 50-hour courses, while PTCEE courses are designed as 100-hour courses (albeit at the same academic level).

Students who are taking courses at both WFDP and PTCEE need to decide whether they wish to graduate with a WFDP Certificate or a PTCEE Certificate in any given year. Students should consult the WFDP Co-ordinator, the PTCEE Director, or the Academic Dean if they have any questions about this principle.

Prizes

Prizes may be awarded to final year students of the Certificate programmes, but are not necessarily awarded every year. There is one academic prize:

- Jean Bell Prize for Significant Achievement.

In addition, there are two community prizes:

- The Jean Bell Prize for Leadership and Example; and
- The Fiona McAdam Prize for Community Work.

Applications

Applications and enrolment for each course must be done via the Registrar's Office, at the same time that enrolment for other PTC programmes takes place.

Course Fees

The course fee for the whole year includes the annual computer fee, library fee, and student body fee, as well as tuition fees and book allowances for each course taken.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES AND SPONSORING CHURCHES

APPLICATIONS

Churches which intend to send students to P.T.C. as full-time residential students must plan to do so well in advance of the time they wish the students to enter the college. The first priority at P.T.C. is to serve the needs of all the participating churches. However, qualified persons who apply with sponsorship from non-participating churches may be admitted. Application forms and Handbook are available from the Registrar.

Closing Date for Applications: The completed forms, including the necessary supporting documents, should be sent to the College Registrar early enough to arrive in Suva before 15th October of the year prior to the year of intended admission.

The College will inform churches about the acceptance or non-acceptance of applicants before the end of November. If a church wishes to repeat an application which previously was not accepted, the Registrar's Office should be informed before 15th October and any new information regarding the student should be sent.

Transcripts/Class Records: A record of all the previous course work beyond the secondary or high school level and/or at the denominational college together with a key to its interpretation must be submitted at the time of application. The transcripts should indicate the classes taken, grades given, and the dates of study. In addition to helping determine entry, transcripts help the adviser in planning the student's programme. When students will be sitting examinations in November, results should be communicated to the P.T.C. so that the transcripts sent to the College can be suitably updated.

REPORTS

The College will send an annual report on each student to the sending church authorities.

COLLEGE FEES

The College Council has implemented some of the Financial Resolutions and the sending Church (or the funding body which has accepted financial responsibility for the student) is requested to fulfil the following conditions:

- Students fees must be paid in advance at least 50% in January 31 and the balance by June 30. Students whose fees are outstanding by the end of February and the end of July shall be suspended from classes. Suspension will cease once the amount due is paid. If the outstanding fees are not paid by March 31 and August 31, the student's studies will be terminated, and they will be asked to leave the College.

- That a student shall not be accepted for the following year of his or her studies unless all the arrears in fees and other expenditures are fully paid. Also the academic transcript will not be released. Or in the case of a final year student, he or she will not graduate and academic transcript will not be released unless the arrears in fees and other expenditures are fully paid.

IMMIGRATION

Application forms for permits from the Government of Fiji allowing the students' spouses and families to enter and reside here in Fiji will be sent together with the 'acceptance letter'. Students themselves will be allowed to enter Fiji when they show immigration officers their acceptance letters from P.T.C. These applications, with proper supporting documentation, (TWO [2] passport size photographs of each person in the family, police reports for student and spouse, marriage certificate, medical certificates for each person in the family (3 months validity at the time of lodgement), birth certificates (for each child). All these supporting documents should be returned to the College Registrar's office as soon as possible so the submission to the Fiji Immigration office to be done early as possible. School records and Transfer letters for each child for whom a place is needed in a nearby primary or secondary school also be sent to the Registrar's office.

For travel to Fiji, students and members of his/her family must have:

- A passport valid for three years.
- A letter from P.T.C. granting admission to the College.
- Fiji Residential permits.

The Immigration authorities in Suva require that the College sign a bond guaranteeing the return fare. The College therefore requires each student and members of his/her family to come with return tickets.

TRAVEL

- The Church is requested to arrange and pay for the passage of students to and from Suva. Travel itineraries should be sent to the Registrar's office three weeks before the exact date of travelling.
- At the end of a student's final year the College will arrange for passages for the student and his family (using the return-tickets referred to above). The supporting Church is responsible for freight charges.

SUMMER VACATION

- The fees which students pay cover only the 42 weeks of the academic year. The Church or sponsoring body therefore has two options:

1. To pay the air fares for the student and family to return home; or
2. To provide living expenses for the student and family to remain at the College. The College will provide a detailed account of the expenses that must be met, including accommodation fees and food allowance. These will be set at the same rate as is charged during the 41 weeks of the academic year.

- At the end of the second year, BD students are expected to return home for the long vacation to undertake field research for their final-year projects. Similarly, MTh. students are expected to return home at the end of their first year in order to work on their theses. The Church can choose whether to provide air fares for the whole family to return home, or to provide one air fare for the student and living expenses for the family members remaining at PTC.

PERSONAL BELONGINGS

- Sheets, blankets, pillow cases, mosquito nets, window curtains, towels are to be provided by the student.
- Bedding (mattress & beds), cooking and eating utensils will be supplied by the College.

RELATIONSHIP OF STUDENT WITH HOME CHURCH

The General Secretary of the home church is urged to keep in touch by correspondence with students sent from the church, so that students may feel that their association with the home church continues through their college life.

MEDICAL EXPENSES AND SUPERVISION

Students should consult their local doctors and follow their advice. (Everyone should be vaccinated against tetanus.) The College cannot be held responsible for sickness contracted while students and their families are resident in Suva. The College undertakes to care for minor medical needs of the students equivalent to the Medical Fees paid. However, where there is any major expenditure involved, the sending Church will be responsible and will be so advised.

ARRIVAL

Some weeks before arriving in Fiji, students should write and give their flight number and expected time of arrival at Nausori airport. A College representative makes every effort to meet new students arriving for the first time. (However, it is always possible to hire a taxi in order to reach the College "at the corner of Vuya Road and Queen Elizabeth Drive, Veiuto, Suva.") Notification of last minute changes should be given by telephone, fax or e-mail to the College Principal or Registrar. (See inside cover page for e-mail address, fax and telephone number.) If possible, students should purchase some Fijian currency before arriving.

COMMUNITY GUIDELINES

INTRODUCTION

Living in a community such as ours can be enriching but also very demanding. We come from so great a variety of backgrounds that living side by side can be difficult. Self-discipline, cooperation, and maturity are expected from all members of the community. These rules provide some essential guidelines to point in the direction we wish to go and to safeguard the Christian character of the community. But the rules are a minimum statement. We need to go beyond them avoiding behaviour which is hurtful or offensive to others, and striving to build a truly Christian community.

COMMUNITY LIFE

- Noise should be controlled. Radios, cassette players, and televisions should not be played loudly. Be careful not to disturb your neighbours at night or early in the morning. Fireworks are not permitted at any time.
- Self-control and moderation are to be exercised in all things. Drunkenness and all other forms of excess and violence to the person are unacceptable.
- Parents should make sure their children are not causing damage or being a nuisance.
- Students who wish to bring additional member of his/her family should inform the Principal and then the Registrar for immigration purposes.
- Students of both sexes will be expected to behave with moral integrity.

COLLEGE PROPERTY

- Children and adults must not damage College property, e.g., motor cars, mosquito screens, paint-work, buildings, furniture, etc.
- Any deliberate damage will have to be paid for by those responsible for it.
- Furniture must not be moved from rooms, flats or houses without permission.
- No book, periodical, or other material should be removed from the library until it has been properly issued at the library desk.
- Washing and Video Machines may be used in student flats if the student is prepared to pay an additional charge as a contribution towards the extra electricity consumed. (A suitable arrangement should be made with the DOF).
- No animals / pets are allowed.
- Household rubbish should not be placed beside the road except on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday mornings, and only in the rubbish bins provided. Care should be taken in the disposal of casual rubbish such as plastic bags, ice-cream containers and cigarette packets, in order to keep the campus beautiful, reduce mosquito-breeding, and avoid blocking the drains.

STUDENT HOUSING POLICY

All students must be housed on the PTC Campus, as resolved by the College Council, with certain exceptions at the discretion of the Principal.

- Married students [families] are permitted to bring only three children with them, as resolved by the College Council, except in consultation with the Principal.
- Students, who occupy a two-bedroom flat, must occupy the same flat throughout his/her studies at PTC.
- Any vacant flat or room will remain as the property of the College, and shall not be used by students.
- College guests may occupy any vacant married flat or singleroom at the discretion of the Student Housing Committee and the Principal.
- For the renting out of vacant married flats or single rooms, the Principal will decide on suitable tenants to safeguard the welfare of the PTC Community.
- If a student flat or room is rented to outside tenants, the rental must be at the same rate as the PTC students' accommodation fees. Any exception to this clause must be approved by the Principal.
- Outside tenants who are renting PTC single rooms or flats are encouraged to participate in the community life of the College.
- Student must leave the flat/house as you found it when you first occupied it.

VISITORS

Visitors to the College are welcomed, but:

- Permission must be granted by the Principal if student families or single students wish to have guests stay with them. Such visits should be no longer than a week. This rule is necessary to protect students and to prevent extra expense to the College.
- All visitors must leave the College campus by 12.00 midnight.

LOST PROPERTY

Any lost property found on the campus should either be handed back to its rightful owner/owners or else handed in without delay to the office. Property found in this way should be notified on the notice board.

Krüger Computer Centre

The PTC Computer Centre was established in 1997 through funding from the Northelbian church in Germany and the efforts of Dr Wolfgang Krüger. The Centre provides the students and staff of PTC with computer training, access to email and the internet, and other computer related services. The Computer Centre contains six PCs. The network is also connected to the Library, so that students with laptops can access email, Internet, the server and the printer from their own computer.

Every staff member and student enrolled in a residential course is entitled to an email account. First year students are required to take computer skills and word processing courses. These courses are taught by the Computer Centre staff. Advanced word processing workshops are also available for MTh students and others writing dissertations or projects.

The Computer Centre staff members have responsibility for the day-to-day care of the whole PTC computer network, including the email system. It is from the Centre that the college's local area network of about 45 PCs is managed. The Centre provides file management, backup and email services, as well as internet access and technical assistance across the network.

Hours of Operation

Monday - Thursday: 8:00am - 4:30pm

Fridays: 8:00am - 4:00pm

Students have 24-hour access to the lab.

- The Church (or other funding body which has accepted responsibility for student fees) is requested to forward to PTC that total amount due by the beginning of each academic year (end of January or beginning of February).
- However, in case, any of the responsible Church or overseas funding body is unable to meet the beginning of the year deadline (due to unavoidable circumstances), then, they must make a payment in advance at least 50% before the end of January and the balance (the other 50%) by June 30th of the same academic year. The College Council resolution in relation to College Fees, which has been effective and enforced since 2011 is as follows: “Students’ fees must be paid in advance, at least 50% by 31st January and the balance by June 30th. Students whose fees are outstanding by the end of February and the end of July shall be suspended from classes. Suspension will cease once the amount due is paid. If the outstanding fees are not paid by March 31st and August 31st, the student’s studies will be terminated, and will be asked to leave the College”.

- A student must not be accepted the following year of his/her studies, unless all arrears (fees & other expenditures) from previous year are fully paid.
- Students who start part-way through an academic year will be charged a proportion of the relevant annual fees.
- The charges listed above cover only the 42 weeks of the academic year. A charge based on one forty-secondth (1/42) of the yearly accommodation fee will be levied for each adult for each week of the summer vacation that he or she wishes to remain at P.T.C. The normal food allowance for each family must also be paid by the funding body for the vacation period. The Director of Finance will submit a statement regarding vacation expenses for each family to the church concerned.
